HYDRO-ELECTRIC COMMISSION (DOUBTS REMOVAL).

No. 18 of 1972.

AN ACT to remove doubts as to the powers that are exercisable by the Hydro-Electric Commission in relation to the construction and carrying out of certain works and purposes.

[24 August 1972.]

BE it enacted by His Excellency the Governor of Tasmania, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and House of Assembly, in Parliament assembled, as follows:—

Short title.

1 This Act may be cited as the Hydro-Electric Commission (Doubts Removal) Act 1972.

Interpretation.

2—(1) In this Act—

“Commission” means the Hydro-Electric Commission;

“enactment” includes a regulation, rule, by-law, proclamation, order, or other document made, issued, or having effect under or for the purposes of an enactment;

“the specified works” means the works and purposes that are specified in Part I of the schedule to the Hydro-Electric Commission (Power Development) Act 1967;

“works” has the same meaning as it has in the Hydro-Electric Commission Act 1944.

(2) In this Act, a reference to land includes a reference to land that, in its natural state, is covered by water and to the water by which it is covered.
