Repeal of Regulation 27 of General Regulations, and substitution of new regulation.

3 Regulation Twenty-seven of the General Regulations to "The Audit Act, 1901," is hereby repealed, and the following substituted therefor:—

"27. The salaries and allowances of the Departments of the Public Service for each calendar month shall be payable in Two payments each month, namely, on the Fifteenth and on the last day of each month: but should either day fall on a Saturday or Sunday or public holiday, then the salaries and allowances otherwise payable on such day shall be payable on the First working day (not being a Saturday) immediately preceding such Saturday, Sunday, or public holiday.

"The said payments in respect of the First part of the month shall be called 'mid-monthly pay,' and the said payments in respect of the remainder of the month shall be called 'end-of-month pay.'

"The Heads of Departments shall prepare Abstracts of Salaries and Allowances of their Departments as and in the form directed by the Treasurer, and shall submit the same to the Treasurer on, or as soon as practicable after, the Eleventh day of each month for the purposes of 'mid-monthly pay,' and on, or as soon as practicable after, the Twenty-sixth day of each month for the purposes of 'end-of-month pay'; and the Treasurer shall pay the total amount of 'mid-monthly pay' or 'end-of-month pay,' as the case may be, shown in every such abstract, to the Head of the Department, taking his receipt for the same and returning to him the abstract in order that the acquittances of the several claimants whose names appear thereon may be obtained.

"The payment of 'end-of-month pay' for the month of December may be made, at the discretion of the Treasurer, on any day not earlier than the Seventeenth day of the month of December.

"Fractions of a pound shall not be included in the amount of 'mid-monthly pay' of any claimant."
