

TASMANIA

1920.

ANNO UNDECIMO

GEORGI V. REGIS.

No. 70.

ANALYSIS.

1. Short title.
2. Repeal and re-enactment of Section 14 (5) of 6 Geo. V. No. 13.
3. Amendment of Section 14 (6).
4. Amendment of Section 14 (7).

AN ACT to amend "The Bursaries Act, 1915." A.D.
1920.
[10 January, 1921.]

BE it enacted by His Excellency the Governor of Tasmania, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and House of Assembly, in Parliament assembled, as follows:—

1 This Act may be cited as "The Bursaries Amendment Act, 1920." Short title.

4d.]

Bursaries Amendment.

A.D. 1920.

Repeal and re-enactment of Section 14 (5) of 6 Geo. V. No. 13.

2 Subsection Five of Section Fourteen of "The Bursaries Act, 1915" (hereinafter referred to as the "said Act"), is hereby repealed, and the following subsection substituted therefor:—

"(5) The number of junior and senior bursaries respectively to be granted in any year shall be determined by the board: Provided that, if practicable—

- i. At least Four-fifths of the senior bursaries shall be set apart for children whose permanent home is so situated that the board consider it necessary for them to live away from home in order to attend a school approved by the board; such bursaries shall be called 'Senior Country Bursaries.' The remaining senior bursaries shall be allotted to those children whose permanent home is so situated that the Board shall consider it unnecessary for them to live away from home in order to attend a school approved by the board; such bursaries shall be called 'Senior City Bursaries':
- ii. At least Four-fifths of the junior bursaries shall be set apart for children whose permanent home is so situated that the Board shall consider it necessary for them to live away from home in order to attend a school approved by the board. Such bursaries shall be called 'Junior Country Bursaries.' One-sixth of the Junior Country Bursaries shall be set apart for children attending schools of the VI. and VII. classes, and One-sixth for children attending schools of the IV. and V. classes. All the remaining Junior Country Bursaries shall be awarded in open competition in accordance with the marks obtained at the qualifying examination.

The junior bursaries other than Junior Country Bursaries shall be allotted to those children whose permanent home is so situated that the Bursaries Board shall consider it unnecessary for them to live away from home in order to attend a school approved by the board. Such bursaries shall be called 'Junior City Bursaries.'

One-sixth of the Junior City Bursaries shall be set apart for children attending schools of the VI. and VII. classes, and One-sixth for children attending schools of the IV. and V. classes. All the remaining Junior City Bursaries shall be awarded in open competition in accordance with the marks obtained at the qualifying examination.

For the purposes of this Subsection the classification of schools prescribed in the Regulations under 'The Education Act, 1885,' and its amendments, shall apply to all schools whether State schools or otherwise.

Provided that no Junior Bursary shall be awarded to any child obtaining less than Sixty-five per centum of the aggregate marks at the annual examination for the qualifying certificate conducted by the Education Department (in this Act referred to as 'the qualifying examination').

---

Bursaries Amendment.

---

3 Subsection (6) of Section Fourteen of the said Act is amended by substituting the word "Four" for the word "Two" in Paragraph I., and the word "Twelve" for the word "Ten" in Sub-paragraph (b) of Paragraph II.

A.D. 1920.

Amendment of
Section 14 (6).

4 Subsection (7) of Section Fourteen of the said Act is amended by substituting the word "Thirty" for the word "Twenty" in Sub-paragraph (a) of Paragraph (1); and by adding at the end of the subsection the following paragraph:—

Amendment of
Section 14 (7).

"III. In any case where the place of residence of a child who has been awarded a bursary has been changed after such award, comprise such boarding allowance as the Board in the particular case may determine."

1950

[The following text is extremely faint and largely illegible due to the quality of the scan. It appears to be a list or a series of entries, possibly related to a library or archival collection. The text is organized into columns and rows, but the specific words and numbers are difficult to discern. It may include names, dates, and identifiers.]