ANNO TRICESIMO-NONO

VICTORIÆ REGINÆ,

No. 7.

AN ACT to amend "The Barristers and Attorneys Act, 1874." [30 September, 1875.] A.D. 1875.

BE it enacted by His Excellency the Governor of Tasmania, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and House of Assembly, in Parliament assembled, as follows:—

1 Whenever any of the Terms of service of Three years, Four years, and Five years respectively mentioned in "The Barristers and Attorneys Act, 1874," (whether the same Terms shall have commenced before or after the passing of the said Act,) shall expire within Three calendar months after either of the periods to be fixed for examination of candidates by the Examiners in any year, then and in such case any person whose term of service will so expire shall be at liberty, upon complying with the Rules prescribed, to pass his examination in Law at the period fixed by the Examiners next preceding the expiration of any of the said Terms; and at any time after the said Term of service has expired the person who has so passed his examination in Law may be admitted to practise as a Barrister, Attorney, Solicitor, and Proctor of the Supreme Court in the manner provided by the said Act. Where term of service expires within Three months of period fixed for examination, candidates may be examined notwithstanding.

2 Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in the Eleventh and Twelfth Sections of the said Act, no person who shall after the passing of this Act be bound by contract to serve as in the said Sections mentioned shall be entitled to be admitted as an Attorney of the said Court unless he shall have first duly served under such contract As to admission of Bachelors and Associates of Arts under Sects. 11 & 12 of 38 Vict. No. 14.
