ANNO QUINQUAGESIMO-SEPTIMO

VICTORIÆ REGINÆ,

No. 7.

RECEIVED by Vict No.

AN ACT to amend “The Customs Duties Act, 1892.” A.D. 1893.
[6 November, 1893.] —

WHEREAS it is expedient to impose further Duties of Customs : PREAMBLE.
Be it therefore enacted by His Excellency the Governor of Tasmania, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and House of Assembly, in Parliament assembled, as follows :—

1 This Act may be cited as “The Customs Duties Amendment Act, 1893.” Short title.

2 In this Act the expression “the said Act” means “The Customs Duties Act, 1892.” Interpretation.
56 Vict. No. 16.

3—(1.) On and after the Twenty-seventh day of July, One thousand eight hundred and ninety-three, and until the Eighth day of September, One thousand eight hundred and ninety-three, there shall be raised, levied, collected, and paid on all articles, goods, animals, wares, and merchandise imported into Tasmania (with the exception of specie, tea, and sugar), a Primage Duty of One Pound per centum on the true and real value thereof as such value is defined by the said Act, and such Primage Duty shall be in addition to any Customs Duties now or hereafter payable by law on such articles, goods, animals, wares, and merchandise. Primage Duty of 1 per cent. on all goods, &c.

(2.) All such articles, goods, animals, wares, and merchandise as were in any bonding warehouse on and after the Twenty-seventh day of July, One thousand eight hundred and ninety-three, or as were entered to be landed on or after that day, and until the Eighth day of Customs Duties Amendment.

A.D. 1893.

September, One thousand eight hundred and ninety-three, shall be deemed to have been imported within the meaning of this Act, and shall be subject and liable to the Primage Duty hereby imposed.

(3.) The Treasurer may remit the Primage Duty hereby imposed upon any package the true and real value of which is less than the sum of One Pound and Five Shillings.

Primage Duty of 3½ per cent. on certain goods.

4 On and after the Ninth day of September, One thousand eight hundred and ninety-three, and until the Thirty-first day of December, One thousand eight hundred and ninety-four, there shall be raised, levied, collected, and paid on all articles, goods, animals, wares, and merchandise imported into the Colony (except the articles, goods, animals, wares, and merchandise set forth in the Schedule hereto), a Primage Duty of Three Pounds and Fifteen Shillings per centum on the true and real value thereof as such value is defined by the said Act, and such Primage Duty shall be in addition to any Customs Duties now or hereafter payable by law on such articles, goods, animals, wares, and merchandise.

All such articles, goods, animals, wares, and merchandise as were in any bonding warehouse on and after the Ninth day of September, One thousand eight hundred and ninety-three, or as were entered to be landed on or after that day, shall be deemed to have been imported within the meaning of this Act, and shall be subject and liable to the Primage Duty hereby imposed.

Provided, that any articles, goods, animals, wares, and merchandise in any Bonding Warehouse on the said Ninth day of September, One thousand eight hundred and ninety-three, upon which a Primage Duty of One Pound per centum has been paid on the same being entered to be landed, a Primage Duty of Two Pounds and Fifteen Shillings per centum shall be payable instead of a Primage Duty of Three Pounds and Fifteen Shillings per centum.
