ANNO QUINQUAGESIMO-PRIMO

VICTORIÆ REGINÆ,

No. 16.

AN ACT to amend the Law relating to Friendly Societies. [6 December, 1887.] A.D. 1887. —

BE it enacted by His Excellency the Governor of Tasmania, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and House of Assembly, in Parliament assembled, as follows :—

1 This Act may be cited as “The Friendly Societies Act, 1888.” Short title.

2 This Act shall commence and take effect from and immediately after the Thirty-first day of December, One thousand eight hundred and eighty-seven. Commencement.

3 Every Certified Friendly Society now subsisting whose Rules have been certified, filed, and registered under the Act of the Nineteenth Victoria, Number Twenty-six, intituled “An Act to regulate Friendly Societies,” shall be deemed to be a Society registered under this Act ; and its Rules shall, so far as the same are not contrary to any express provision of this Act, continue in force until altered or rescinded. As to existing Societies.

4 In this Act, if not inconsistent with the context, the following terms shall have the meanings hereinafter respectively assigned to them :— Definitions. 38 & 39 Vict. c. 60, s. 4.

Friendly Societies.

A.D. 1887.

- “The Registrar” shall mean the Registrar of Friendly Societies appointed under this Act :
- “The Statistician” shall mean the Officer appointed by the Governor in Council to collect statistical information of the Colony of Tasmania :
- “Property” shall mean all real and personal estate (including books and papers) :
- “Registered Society” or “Registered Branch” shall mean a Society or Branch registered or deemed to be registered under this Act :
- “Amendment of Rule” shall include a new Rule and a resolution rescinding a Rule :
- “Rules” shall mean Rules for the time being :
- “Kindred” shall include such relatives as may be defined by the Rules of any Society :
- “Branch” shall mean any number of the members of a Society under the control of a central body having a special fund administered by themselves, or by a committee or officers appointed by themselves :
- “Persons claiming through a member” shall include the executors, administrators, and assigns of a member, and also his nominees when nomination is allowed :
- “Officer” shall extend to any Trustee, Treasurer, Secretary, or member of the Committee of Management of a Society, or to any person or persons appointed to manage any hall or building erected by such Society, or person appointed by a Society to sue and be sued on its behalf :
- “Meeting” shall include (when the Rules of a Society so allow) a meeting of delegates appointed by members :
- “Gazette” shall mean the Hobart Gazette :
- “The Minister” shall mean the Responsible Minister of the Crown administering this Act.

Objects for which Societies may be registered under this Act.

5 Societies may be registered under this Act to provide by voluntary subscriptions of the members thereof, with or without the aid of donations, for any one or more of the following objects—

- (I.) For the relief or maintenance of members, their husbands, wives, children, or kindred in infancy, old age, widowhood, sickness, or other infirmity, bodily or mental, or any natural state of which the probability may be calculated by way of average :
- (II.) For providing medical attendance, dispensing medicines to the members, their husbands, wives, widows, children, or kindred :
- (III.) For defraying the expenses of the burial of members, their husbands, wives, widows, children, or kindred, subject to the restrictions hereinafter contained :
- (IV.) For the relief or maintenance of the members when on travel in search of employment, or when in distressed circumstances, or in case of shipwreck, or loss or damage of or to boats or nets :

Friendly Societies.

- (v.) For the insurance against fire to any amount not exceeding Fifteen Pounds of the tools or implements of the trade or calling of the members : A.D. 1887.
- (vi.) For insuring a sum of money to be paid to a member or his widow on the birth of any child of such member, or for insuring a sum of money to be paid on the death of any member to the widow or widower, or to the child or children, or to the executor or administrator of such deceased member :

Provided that no Society or Branch which contracts with any person for the periodical payment in any contingency of any sum of money exceeding the sum of Twenty-one Shillings per week, or contracts with any person for the assurance of an annuity exceeding Fifty Pounds per annum, or for the payment in any contingency of a gross sum exceeding One hundred Pounds, shall be registered under this Act.

6 Any member of any Society not exempted from registration under this Act and formed for the purpose of providing as aforesaid for any of the objects mentioned in Section Five of this Act, and not registered under this Act, may at any time demand and recover from such Society, by an action at Law brought in any competent Court having jurisdiction to the amount claimed, the amount of all subscriptions and donations paid or contributed by him to the funds of such Society during the period of Six years immediately preceding the date on which such action shall be commenced ; and in every such action such Society may be sued as defendant in the name of any officer or person within the jurisdiction of the Court in which the action is brought who receives subscriptions or contributions on behalf of the Society, with the addition of the words “on behalf of——” (naming the Society) ; and all funds and other property of such Society, in whose-soever hands or custody the same may be, shall be available for the purpose of satisfying any judgment obtained by the plaintiff in any such action as aforesaid, and may be attached or seized and taken in execution thereunder : Provided always, that no member of any such unregistered Society as aforesaid who has received or accepted, under the Rules of such Society, any benefit or relief or maintenance provided by the funds of such Society, shall be entitled to demand or recover as aforesaid repayment of any portion of any subscriptions or donations paid or contributed by him to the funds of such Society.

Members of unregistered Societies may recover their contributions.

7 The Governor in Council may from time to time appoint some fit and proper person to be Registrar of Friendly Societies ; and every such person may remove ; and on the death, removal, or resignation of any such Registrar may appoint some other person in his place ; and in case of the absence or temporary incapacity of such Registrar may appoint some fit and proper person qualified as aforesaid to act in his stead, and such person when so acting shall have and exercise all the powers and duties of the Registrar.

The Registrar.

8 All copies of Rules of Friendly Societies or Branches hitherto formed and established, with the Certificates annexed to the same, which are now filed and kept amongst the records of the office of any Clerk of the Peace, shall be taken off the file and shall be transmitted, on or before the First day of June, One thousand eight hundred and eighty-eight, to the Registrar under this Act, to be by him kept in such manner as shall be directed from time to time by the Minister in that behalf.

Rules already filed to be sent to Registrar.

Registrar to report yearly for Parliament.
38 & 39 Vict.
c. 60, s. 10 (6.)

10 The Registrar and Statistician respectively shall in every year make to the Minister reports of their proceedings and of the principal matters transacted by them ; and in particular the Statistician shall make a report of the valuations returned to or caused to be made by him during the year ending the Thirty-first day of December preceding, and the Minister shall lay such reports before Parliament.

Registry of Societies.
Ib., s. 11.
Must consist of Ten persons at least.
Ib. (1.)
Application for registry.
Ib. (2.)

11 With respect to the registry of Societies, the following provisions shall have effect—

- (I.) No Society or Branch can be registered under this Act which does not consist of Ten persons at least :
- (II.) For the purpose of registry, an application to register the Society or Branch, signed by Ten members and the Secretary, and two copies of the Rules written or printed, or partly written and partly printed, and accompanied by the Certificate hereinafter mentioned, together with a list of the names of the Secretary, and of every Trustee or other officer authorised to sue and be sued on behalf of the Society or Branch, shall be sent to the Registrar :
- (III.) The copies of the Rules sent to the Registrar for the purpose of registry shall be accompanied by a Certificate signed by the Attorney or Solicitor-General, to the effect that the said Rules are in conformity to Law and to the provisions of this Act; and the Attorney-General, or, in his absence or the vacancy of the office, the Solicitor-General, is hereby required, upon receipt of such two copies as aforesaid of the said Rules, signed by Three members and the Secretary, to examine without unnecessary delay the said Rules, and see that the same are framed in conformity with Law, and that no Rule or part thereof is

- repugnant to another, and that the same are reasonable and proper, and, upon being satisfied that such Rules are as aforesaid, to give a Certificate in the form given in the Schedule (1). A.D. 1887.
- (iv.) For every such Certificate of the Rules of any Friendly Society a fee of Two Pounds Two Shillings shall be paid to the Attorney or Solicitor-General, and for every Certificate of amendment, repeal, or alteration of the Rules of any Society or Branch a fee of One Pound One Shilling shall be paid to the Attorney or Solicitor-General. Fees payable for Certificate.
- (v.) No Society or Branch shall be registered under a name identical with that under which any existing Society or Branch is registered, or so nearly resembling such name as to be likely or in any name likely in the opinion of the Registrar to deceive the members or the public as to its identity ; and no Society or Branch shall change its name without the sanction of the Registrar as after provided : Prohibition of identity or deceptive similarity of name.
38 & 39 Vict.
c. 60 (3.)
- (vi.) A Society or Branch shall not be disentitled to registry by reason of any rule for or practice of dividing any part of the funds thereof, if the Rules thereof contain distinct provision for meeting all claims upon the Society existing at the time of division before any such division takes place : Dividing Societies may be registered.
Ib. (4.)
- (vii.) No Society or Branch shall be entitled to registry unless the tables of contributions certified by some Actuary or other person approved by the Governor in Council, be sent to the Registrar with the application for registry : Tables of contributions to be certified by Actuary.
- (viii.) The Registrar, on being satisfied that a Society or Branch has complied with the provisions as to registry in force under this Act, shall issue to such Society or Branch an acknowledgment of registry : Acknowledgment of registry.
Ib. (7.)
- (ix.) If the Registrar refuse to register the Society or Branch, or any Rules, the Society or Branch may appeal from such refusal to the Supreme Court or a Judge thereof, and the Judges of the Supreme Court may make Rules or Orders as to the form of appeals and the trying thereof, and otherwise relating thereto : Appeal from refusal to register.
Ib. (8.)
- (x.) If the refusal of registry be overruled on appeal, an acknowledgment of registry shall thereupon be given to the Society or Branch by the Registrar : Acknowledgment of registry to be given if appeal allowed.
Ib. (9.)
- (xi.) The acknowledgment of registry shall be conclusive evidence that the Society or Branch therein mentioned is duly registered, unless it be proved that the registry of the Society or Branch has been suspended or cancelled. Acknowledgment evidence.
Ib. (10.)
- (xii.) The provisions of this Section shall apply to the registration of any Branch of any Society in any case in which application is made to register such Branch separately. Section not to apply, &c.
- 12 With respect to the cancelling or suspension of registry the following provisions shall have effect :—
- (i.) The Registrar may cancel the registry of a Society or any Branch by writing under his hand—
- (a) If he thinks fit, at the request of a Society or Branch, to be evidenced in such manner as he may from time to time direct, or on proof to his satisfaction that the Society or Branch has less than Ten members :

(b) With the approval of the Minister, on proof to his satisfaction that an acknowledgment of registry has been obtained by fraud or mistake, or that a Society or Branch exists for an illegal purpose, or has wilfully and after notice from the Registrar violated any of the provisions of this Act, or has ceased to exist :

Suspension.
38 & 39 Vict.
c. 60, s. 12 (2.)

(ii.) The Registrar, in any case in which he might, with the approval of the Minister, cancel the registry of a Society or Branch, may suspend the same by writing under his hand for any term not exceeding Three months, and may, with the approval of the Minister, renew such suspension from time to time for the like period :

Notice of cancelling or suspension.
Ib. (3.)

(iii.) Except in cases where the Society or Branch has ceased to exist, or, where the cancellation or suspension is at the request of the Society or Branch, not less than Two months' previous notice in writing, specifying briefly the ground of any proposed cancelling or suspension of registry, shall be given by the Registrar to a Society or Branch before the registry of the same can be cancelled or suspended; and notice of every cancelling or suspension shall be published in the Gazette and in some newspaper circulating in the City, Town, or District in which the registered office of the Society or Branch is situated as soon as practicable after the same takes place :

Appeal from cancelling or suspension.
Ib. (4.)

(iv.) A Society or Branch may appeal from the cancelling of its registry, or from any suspension of the same, which is renewed after Six months, in manner herein provided for appeals from the Registrar's refusal to register :

Effect of cancelling or suspension.
Ib. (5.)

(v.) A Society or Branch whose registry has been suspended or cancelled shall from the time of such suspension or cancelling (but if suspended only while under such suspension, and subject also to the right of appeal hereby given) absolutely cease to enjoy as such the privileges of a registered Society or Branch, but without prejudice to any liability actually incurred by such Society or Branch, which may be enforced against the same as if such suspension or cancelling had not taken place.

Suspension not to relieve Trustee, &c. from liability.

(vi.) Such suspension shall not relieve any Trustee or other officer of the Society or Branch so suspended from liability to account for any funds belonging to such suspended Society or Branch, and in the control or custody of such Trustee or other officer, and shall not remove any protection afforded by this Act to any funds or investments of such Society or Branch.

Rules.
Ib., s. 13.

13 With respect to the Rules of Societies or Branches, the following provisions shall have effect :—

Provisions to be contained in Rules.
Ib. (1.)
Schedule (2.)

(i.) The Rules of every Society or Branch sent for registry shall contain provisions in respect of the several matters mentioned in the Schedule (2.) :

Friendly Societies.

- (ii.) No Rule or amendment of a Rule of a Society or Branch shall be disentitled to registry by reason of its expressing or implying any subordination to the Central Body of the same Order outside Tasmania, or by reason of its containing any reference to or incorporating with such Rules any one or more of the General Rules of the said Order : Provided that such General Laws shall be or have been forwarded to the Registrar by such Society or Branch ; but nothing herein contained shall have the effect of giving force to any General Law that is contrary to the express provisions of this Act. If such Rules and the General Laws incorporated therewith provide for the matters provided in the Second Schedule hereto, the Society or Branch shall be deemed to have sufficiently complied with this Sub-section :
- (iii.) No amendment of a Rule made by a registered Society or Branch shall be valid until the same has been registered under this Act, for which purpose two copies of the same, signed by Three members and the Secretary, shall be sent to the Registrar, accompanied by a Certificate signed by the Attorney or Solicitor-General that such amendment is in conformity with Law and the provisions of this Act, and the Attorney-General, or, in his absence or vacancy of the office, the Solicitor-General, is hereby required, upon the receipt of such two copies as aforesaid of such amendment signed as aforesaid, to examine the same without unnecessary delay, and see that the same is in conformity with Law and not repugnant to any of the Rules of such Society or Branch, and upon being satisfied thereof to give such Certificate as aforesaid :
- (iv.) The provisions herein contained as to appeals from a refusal of registry shall apply to amendments of Rules :
- (v.) The Registrar shall, on being satisfied that any amendment of a Rule is not contrary to the provisions of this Act, issue to the Society or Branch an acknowledgment of registry of the same, which shall be conclusive evidence that the same is duly registered :
- (vi.) A copy of the Rules of a registered Society or Branch shall be delivered by the Society or Branch, as the case may be, to every person on demand on payment of a sum not exceeding One Shilling :
- (vii.) If any person with intent to mislead or defraud gives to any other person a copy of any Rules, Laws, Regulations, By-laws, or other documents other than the Rules for the time being registered under this Act, on the pretence that the same are existing Rules of a registered Society or Branch, or that there are no other Rules of such Society or Branch, or gives to any person a copy of any Rules on the pretence that such Rules are the Rules of a registered Society or Branch when the Society or Branch is not registered, the person so offending shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor.

(III.) In all Societies and Branches all moneys received or paid on account of each and every particular fund or benefit shall be kept separate and distinct, and shall be entered in a separate account distinct from the moneys received and paid on account of any other fund or benefit; and the moneys belonging to one fund or benefit shall not be used in any manner for the advantage or otherwise of any other fund or benefit.

(IV.) It shall be an offence under this Act if any registered Society or Branch—

(a) Fails to give any notice, send any return or document, or do or allow to be done any act or thing which the Society or Branch, as the case may be, is by this Act required to give, send, do, or allow to be done :

(b) Wilfully neglects or refuses to do any act or to furnish any information required for the purposes of this Act by the Registrar, Statistician, or other person authorised under this Act, or does any act or thing forbidden by this Act :

(c) Makes a return or wilfully furnishes information in any respect false or insufficient.

(v.) Every offence by a Society or Branch under this Act shall be deemed to have been also committed by every officer of the same bound by the Rules thereof to fulfil any duty whereof such offence is a breach, or if there be no such officer then by every member of the Committee of Management of the same, unless such member be proved to have been ignorant of or to have attempted to prevent the commission of such offence; and every default under this Act constituting an offence, if continued, shall constitute a new offence in every week during which the same continues.

(vi.) Every annual quinquennial or other return, abstract of valuation, or other document required for the purposes of this Act, if the same be required to be made to the Statistician, shall be made in such form and contain such particulars as the Statistician, with the approval of the Governor in Council, may from time to time prescribe; otherwise the same shall be made in such form and shall contain such particulars as the Registrar may prescribe.

(vii.) All documents by this Section required to be sent to the Registrar shall be deposited with the Rules of the Societies or Branches to which the same respectively relate, and shall be registered or recorded by the Registrar, with such observations thereon (if any) as to the Registrar shall seem fit.

If any member of a Society or Branch become of unsound mind and incapable of managing his affairs, whether such member be found lunatic by inquisition or not, and no committee or guardian of the estate of such member be appointed, any moneys to which such member may be or become entitled out of the funds of the Society or Branch may be paid or applied for the benefit of such member or his wife or family in any manner the Trustees of such Society or Branch or the majority of them may think fit, and such payment or application shall be valid and effectual against all persons whatever.
- (viii.) Upon the death or bankruptcy (which term includes liquidation by arrangement or composition with creditors under any Act now or hereafter to be in force) of any officer of a Society or Branch having in his possession by virtue of his office any money or property belonging to the Society or Branch, or if any execution, attachment, or other process be issued against such officer or against his property, his executors or administrators, or trustee in bankruptcy or liquidation by arrangement, or the Sheriff or other person executing such process shall upon demand in writing, as the case may be, of the Trustees of the Society or Branch or any Two of them, or any person authorised by the Society or Branch, or by the Committee of Management of the same to make such demand, pay such money, and deliver over such property to the Trustees of the Society or Branch in preference to any other debts or claims against the estate of such officer.
- (ix.) A person under the age of Twenty-one years may become a member of a Society or Branch, unless provision be made in the Rules thereof to the contrary, and may, subject to the Rules thereof, enjoy all the rights of a member, except as herein provided, and execute all instruments and give all acquittances necessary to be executed or given under the Rules, but shall not be a member of the Committee of Management, Trustee, Manager, or Treasurer: Provided as follows :—

Friendly Societies.

- (a) Societies and Branches consisting wholly of members of any age under Twenty-one years but exceeding Three years may be allowed to register under this Act, subject to such regulations as may be made in that behalf: A.D. 1887.
- (b) No rule or practice in force at the commencement of this Act for the admission of members under Twenty-one years of age shall be deemed contrary to any express provision of this Act as respects any Society or Branch already registered.
- (x.) For the purposes of this Act a certificate of the birth or death of any person shall be given under his hand by the Registrar of Births, Deaths, and Marriages, or Deputy Registrar, or other person having the care of the Register of Births or Deaths in which such birth or death is entered, for a sum not exceeding One Shilling in place of all fees or payments in respect of the same, on application being made for the same in such form and under such regulations as shall be approved of by the Governor in Council. Limitation of cost of certificate of birth or death. 38 & 39 Vict. c. 60, s. 15 (9.)
- (xi.) A Society or Branch may subscribe out of its funds to any Hospital, Infirmary, Charitable or Provident Institution any annual or other sum which may be necessary to secure to members of the Society or Branch and their families the benefits of such Hospital, Infirmary, or other Institution, according to its Rules. Power for Society to subscribe to Hospitals, &c. Ib. (10.)
- 16 With respect to the property and funds of registered Societies or Branches the following provisions shall have effect:—
- (i.) The Trustees, with the consent of the Committee of Management, or a majority of the members of a Society or Branch, as the case may be, present and entitled to vote in general meeting, may from time to time invest the funds of such Society or Branch, or any part thereof, to any amount, in any of the following ways:—
- (a) In any Savings Bank, or in any Bank incorporated by Royal Charter, or by or under the provisions of any Act of Parliament, or on deposit with the Postmaster-General under any Law now or hereafter to be in force relating to Post Office deposit for savings:
- (b) On Government securities of the Colony of Tasmania:
- (c) On mortgage of freehold or leasehold property (such leasehold being for a term of years absolute, of which not less than Twenty years is unexpired):
- (d) On Debentures or other securities of the Corporation of the City of Hobart or the Town of Launceston, or any loans raised under "The Local Bodies Loans Act" the interest of which is guaranteed by Government.
- (e) In any Registered Building Society.
- (ii.) A Society, or any Branch of a Society, may, for the purpose of holding the meetings and transacting the business of such Society or Branch, hold, purchase, or take on lease in the names of the Trustees for the time being of such Society or Branch any land, and may sell, exchange, mortgage, lease, or build upon the same, with power to alter and pull down buildings and again rebuild; and no purchaser, assignee, mortgagee, or tenant shall be bound to inquire as to the authority for any sale, exchange, mortgage, or lease by the Trustees, and the receipt of the Trustees shall be a discharge for all moneys arising from or in connection with such sale, exchange, mortgage, or lease; and for the purpose of this Sub-division of this Section no Branch of a registered Society need be separately registered.

- (iii.) All property belonging to a Society or Branch, whether acquired before or after the same is registered, shall vest in the Trustees for the time being of the Society or Branch for the use and benefit of the Society or Branch and the members thereof, and of all persons claiming through the members, according to the Rules of the Society or Branch; and the property of any Branch of a Society shall vest in the Trustees of such Branch or in the Trustees of the Society or Branch, if the Rules of the Society or Branch so provide, for the use and benefit, either of the members of such Branch and persons claiming through such members, or of the members of the Society or Branch generally and persons claiming through them, according to the Rules of the Society or Branch.
- (iv.) Upon the death, resignation, or removal of a Trustee, whether of a Society or Branch, the property vested in such Trustee shall vest in the succeeding Trustee of such Society or Branch, either solely or together with any surviving or continuing Trustees, and until the appointment of succeeding Trustees in such surviving or continuing Trustees only, or in the executors or administrators of the last surviving or continuing Trustee, subject to the same trusts without conveyance, assignment, or transfer; and in case any such property be under The Real Property Act, the Trustees or Trustee in whom the same is vested under the provisions of this Act shall be deemed the proprietors or proprietor thereof within the meaning of The Real Property Act as if the names or name of such Trustees or Trustee appeared or were entered as such proprietors or proprietor in the register book.
- (v.) Where by the Rules of any Society the Society generally or the central body is answerable for all or any of the benefits agreed to be given by any Branch to the members of such Branch, in every such case the Trustees in whom the property of such Branch is vested shall stand possessed thereof after payment thereof of the benefits to which the members of such Branch are entitled according to the Rules of the Society upon trust for the Society generally or central body; and in case the property of such Branch is vested in Trustees distinct from the Trustees of the Society, the Trustees of such Branch shall, if such branch breaks up, or becomes unable to meet its liabilities, or severs its connection with the Society, pay and make over all the property of such branch in their hands or vested in them to the Trustees of the Society, and shall do and execute all acts, assurances, matters, and things necessary for that purpose; and in every case where the Trustees of any Branch pay or make over to the Trustees of the Society any property bonâ fide as under the provisions of this Sub-division of this Section, the receipt of the Trustees of the Society shall be a full discharge to them therefor notwithstanding that the Branch may not in fact have broken up, be unable to meet its liabilities, or have severed its connection with the Society; and every person interested in the property of such Branch shall have the same remedies against the Trustees of the Society that he would otherwise have had against the Trustees of such Branch.

- (vi.) In all legal proceedings whatever concerning any such property, the same shall be stated to be the property of the Trustees for the time being in their proper names, as Trustees for the Society or Branch (as the case may be) without further description. Property where laid in legal proceedings. 38 & 39 Vict. c. 60, s. 16 (5.)
- (vii.) A receipt under the hands of the Trustees of any Society or Branch, countersigned by the Secretary of such Society or Branch, in the form contained in the Schedule (3.), or in any form specified by the Rules of the Society or Branch or any Schedule thereto, for all moneys secured to the Society or Branch by any mortgage or other assurance, such receipt being endorsed upon or annexed to such mortgage or other assurance, shall vacate the same and vest the property therein comprised in the person entitled to the equity of redemption of the same without re-conveyance or re-surrender. If the mortgage or other assurance shall have been registered in the office of the Registrar of Deeds, no such receipt shall be sufficient to vacate such mortgage, or to vest the estate of and in the property comprised therein, unless such receipt be also registered in the office of the Registrar of Deeds, as by law required; and if any such mortgage shall have been registered in the office of the Recorder of Titles no such receipt shall be sufficient to vacate such mortgage unless such receipt be also registered in the office of the Recorder of Titles. Discharge of mortgages by indorsed receipt. Ib. (7.) Schedule (3.)
- (viii.) If any person obtains possession by false representation or imposition of any property of a Society or Branch, or having the same in his possession, withholds or misapplies the same, or wilfully applies any part thereof to purposes other than those expressed or directed in the Rules of the Society or Branch and authorised by this Act, he shall, on the complaint of the Society or Branch, or of any member authorised thereby, or the Trustees or Committee of Management of the same, or of the Registrar, or any person authorised by the Registrar, be liable on summary conviction before any Two Justices to a penalty not exceeding Twenty Pounds and costs, and to be ordered to deliver up all such property and to repay all moneys applied improperly, and in default of such delivery or repayment, or of the payment of such penalty and costs aforesaid to be Punishment for fraudulently obtaining, withholding, or misappropriating the property of a Society. Ib. (9.)

Power to Judge of Supreme Court to order repayment by Trustees of money applied in breach of trust.

(ix.) If any Trustee of a Society or Branch lends any money the property thereof to any of his Co-Trustees, or borrows any such money himself, or otherwise applies any such money in breach of trust, in addition to any other remedy in respect thereof, any member of the Society may apply to a Judge of the Supreme Court of Tasmania in Chambers, and such Judge may order any Trustee so lending or borrowing such money, or privy to such breach of trust, or any Two or more of such Trustees jointly and severally forthwith to pay the same either to the Trustees of such Society or Branch, or into Court; and in case any such money be paid into Court may, on the application of the Society or Branch, as the case may be, or the Committee of Management thereof, by any subsequent order, order the same to be paid out of Court to the Trustees of such Society or Branch; and such Judge may order all or any such defaulting Trustees to pay the costs of and attending every application under this Sub-division of this Section, including the costs of the payment of any money into and out of Court.

Liability of Trustees.
38 & 39 Vict.
c. 60, s. 16 (10.)

(x.) Trustees of a Society or Branch shall not be liable to make good any deficiency in the funds of such Society or Branch, but shall be liable only for moneys, deeds, and documents and other property actually received by them respectively on account of such Society or Branch.

Officers of Society to be deemed servants.
27 Vict. No. 8.

(xi.) Every person elected or appointed to be Secretary, Treasurer, or other officer of a Society or a registered Branch registered under this Act, or registered or established under any Act repealed hereby, or who shall act in the capacity of or be employed as such Secretary, Treasurer, or officer, is, for the purposes and within the meaning of the Fifty-eighth, Fifty-ninth, Sixty-second, and Sixty-third Sections of "The Larceny Act, 1863," (27 Victoria, No. 8), to be deemed to be the servant of the Trustees for the time being of such Society or such registered Branch, as the case may be; and any such person who commits an offence against the said provisions of "The Larceny Act, 1863," may be proceeded against, tried, and, if convicted, punished, in accordance with the provisions of the said Act as in the case of larceny or embezzlement by a clerk or servant.

Provisions of "The Larceny Act, 1863," to apply to officers.

(xii.) All other the provisions of "The Larceny Act, 1863," which would be applicable or extend to the case of larceny or embezzlement by clerks or servants are to extend and apply to the Secretary, Treasurer, or other officer of any such Society, and the Secretary, Treasurer, or any officer of any registered Branch.

Friendly Societies.

17 With respect to officers of registered Societies or Branches having the receipt or charge of money, the following provisions shall have effect :—

(i.) Every officer shall before taking upon himself the execution of his office become bound with one sufficient surety at the least in a bond, which may be in the form set forth in the Schedule (4.), or the security of a guarantee Society in such sum as the Society or Branch may direct, conditioned for his rendering a just and true account of all moneys received and paid by him on account of the Society or Branch at such times as its Rules appoint, or as the Society or Branch or the Trustees or Committee of Management thereof require him to do, and for the payment by him of all sums due from him to the Society or Branch.

(ii.) Every officer, his executors or administrators, shall at such times as by the Rules of the Society or Branch he should render account, or upon demand made, or upon notice in writing given or left at his last or usual place of residence, give in his account as may be required by the Society or Branch or by the Trustees or Committee of Management thereof, to be examined and allowed or disallowed by them, and shall on the like demand or notice pay over all moneys and deliver all property for the time being in his hands or custody to such person as the Society or Branch, or the Committee of Management, or the Trustees appoint ; and in case of any neglect or refusal to deliver such account, or to pay over such moneys, or to deliver such property in manner aforesaid, the Trustees or authorised officers of the Society or Branch may sue upon the bond or security before mentioned, or may apply to a Judge of the Supreme Court of Tasmania in Chambers, or to any Two Justices ; and the order of such Judge or Justices shall be final and conclusive.

18 With respect to legal proceedings by or against registered Societies or Branches, the following provisions shall have effect :—

(i.) The Trustees of any Society or Branch, or any other officers authorised by the Rules thereof, may bring or defend or cause to be brought or defended any action, suit, or other legal proceeding in any Court whatsoever touching or concerning any property, right, or claim of the Society or Branch, as the case may be ; and shall sue and be sued, implead and be impleaded in their proper names without other description than the title of their office.

(ii.) In legal proceedings which may be brought under this Act by a member or person claiming through a member, the Society or Branch may also be sued in the name as defendant of any officer or person who receives contributions on its behalf within the jurisdiction of the Court in which the legal proceeding is brought, with the addition of the words "on behalf of the Society" or "Branch" (naming the same).

(iii.) No legal proceeding shall abate or be discontinued by the death, resignation, or removal from office of any officer, or by any act of such officer after the commencement of the proceedings.

- (a) The application herein mentioned shall be supported by such evidence for the purpose of showing that the applicants have good reason for requiring such inspection to be made or meeting to be called, and that they are not actuated by malicious motives in their application, and such notice thereof shall be given to the Society or Branch as the Registrar shall direct :
- (b) The Registrar may if he think fit require the applicants to give security for the cost of the proposed inspection or meeting before appointing any Inspector or calling such meeting :
- (c) All expenses of and incidental to any such inspection or meeting shall be defrayed either by the members applying for the same, or out of the funds of the Society or Branch, as the Registrar shall direct :
- (d) This Section shall not apply to the Branches of a registered Society without the consent of the Central Body of such Society.
- 21 With respect to special resolutions by registered Societies, and to proceedings that may be taken by virtue thereof, the following provisions shall have effect:—
- (I.) A special resolution is one which is passed by majority of not less than three-fourths of such members of a Society for the time being entitled under the Rules to vote as may be present in person or by proxy (where the Rules allow proxies) at any General Meeting of which notice specifying the intention to propose such resolution has been duly given according to the Rules, and which Resolution is confirmed by a majority of such members for the time being entitled under the Rules to vote as may be present in person or by proxy at a subsequent General Meeting, of which notice has been duly given, held not less than Fourteen days nor more than One month from the day of the meeting at which such resolution was first passed. At any meeting mentioned in this Section a declaration by the Chairman that the resolution has been carried shall be deemed conclusive evidence of the fact.
- (II.) A Society may by special resolution, with the approval in writing of the Registrar, change its name, but no such change shall affect any right or obligation of the Society or of any member thereof; and any pending legal proceedings may be continued by or against the Trustees of the Society or any other officer, who may sue or be sued on behalf of the Society notwithstanding its new name.
- (III.) Any Two or more Societies may, by special resolution of both or all such Societies, become amalgamated together as one Society, with or without any dissolution or division of the funds of such Societies or either of them; and any Society may by special resolution transfer

- (iv.) A Society may by special resolution determine to convert itself into a Company under any Act for the time being in force relating to the incorporation of Companies, or to amalgamate with or transfer its engagement to any such Company.
- (v.) No amalgamation or transfer of engagements shall prejudice any right of a creditor of either or any Society party thereto.
- (vi.) A copy of every special resolution for any of the purposes mentioned in this Section, signed by the Chairman of the meeting and countersigned by the Secretary, shall be sent to the Registrar and registered by him, and until such copy is so registered such special resolution shall not take effect.
- (vii.) If a special resolution for converting a Society into a Company contain the particulars by any Act for the time being in force relating to the incorporation of Companies required to be contained in the Memorandum of Association of a Company, and a copy thereof has been registered as aforesaid, a copy thereof under the hand of the Registrar shall have the same effect as a Memorandum of Association duly signed and attested under such Act.
- (viii.) If a Society be registered as, or amalgamated with, or transfers all its engagements to a Company, the registry of such Society under this Act shall thereupon become void, and the same shall be cancelled by the Registrar, but the registration of a Society as a Company shall not affect any right or claim for the time being subsisting against such Society, or any penalty for the time being incurred by such Society; and for the purpose of enforcing any such right, claim, or penalty, the Society may be sued and proceeded against in the same manner as if it had not been registered as a Company; and every such right or claim or the liability to such penalty shall have priority as against the property of such Company over all other rights or claims against or liabilities of such Company.
- Provided as follows:—
- (a) No special resolution by any Society for any amalgamation or transfer of engagements under this Section shall be valid unless Five-sixths in value (to be calculated as for dissolution) of the members assent thereto either at the meetings at which such resolution is passed and confirmed or one of them, or in writing, if such members were not present thereat, nor without the written consent of every person for the time being receiving or entitled to any relief or other benefit from the funds of the Society unless the claim of such person be first duly satisfied, or adequate provision be made for satisfying such claim.

Power to registered Societies to convert themselves into Branches of other Societies.
39 & 40 Vict.
c. 32, s. 3 (1.)

28 With respect to the conversion of registered Societies into Branches the following provisions shall have effect :—

- (i.) A Society registered before the commencement of this Act may, by a resolution passed by three-fourths of the members present and entitled to vote at any general meeting of the Society, of which notice specifying the intention to propose such resolution has been duly given according to the Rules, determine to become a Branch under this Act of any other registered Society, and also if thought fit of any registered Branch thereof; and if the Rules of such Society do not comply with all the provisions of this Act and of the regulations of the Governor in Council with respect to the registry of Branches, the meeting at which such resolution is passed may amend such Rules so as to bring the same into compliance with this Act and with such regulations.
- Ib.* (2.) (ii.) A copy of the Rules of such first-mentioned Society marked to show the amendments (if any) made at such meeting, and Two copies of such resolution as aforesaid and of such amendment of Rules (if any), each signed by the Chairman of the meeting and by the Secretary of the Society so determining to become a Branch of any other Society, and countersigned by the Secretary of such other Society, shall be sent to the Registrar, and if the Registrar finds that such Rules, with or without such amendment as aforesaid, comply with the provisions of this Act and of the Regulations of the Governor in Council hereunder, he shall cancel the registry of such first-mentioned Society and register the same as a Branch of such other Society, and also, if so specified in the resolution before-mentioned, of any Branch of such other Society, without further request or notice, and shall register such amendment of Rules without further application or evidence; and until such registry such resolution as aforesaid shall not take effect.
- Ib.* (3.) (iii.) No advertisement of any cancelling of registry under this Section shall be requisite.
- Ib.* (4.) (iv.) The Rules of a Society which becomes a Branch under this Section shall, so far as the same are not contrary to any express provision of this Act or of the Regulations of the Governor in Council thereunder, and subject to any amendment thereof as hereinbefore provided, continue in force as the Rules of such Branch until amended.
