the same manner and to the same extent as if the said area was included in the boundaries of the said City.

Hobart Corporation.

A.D. 1898.

Citizen may vote in respect of property for which Rates have been paid.

5 Notwithstanding anything contained in the Principal Act, every citizen who has paid all Municipal Rates due and payable by him or her up to the day on which any Election of Aldermen shall be held under that Act in respect of any property occupied by him or her, shall be entitled to vote at such election in respect of such property, although other Municipal Rates due and payable by him or her in respect of any other property shall not have been paid.

Owner not liable to pay Rates in respect of any unoccupied property.

6 Nothing contained in the Principal Act shall be held or construed to make the owner of any property liable for the payment of any Municipal Rates in respect thereof for any period during which such property shall be unoccupied: Provided always that the word "property," as used in this Section, shall not include any piece of land the annual value whereof is assessed at a sum equal to Five per cent. of the capital value thereof, pursuant to the provision in that behalf contained in Section Eighty-five of the Principal Act.

Council may appropriate any unexpended balance of money borrowed for the erection of a Town Hall.

7 It shall be lawful for the Council to transfer to "The Municipal Fund" mentioned in Section One hundred and sixty-one of the Principal Act, and to appropriate to any of the purposes mentioned in Section One hundred and sixty-three of the Principal Act, any unexpended balance of any sum of money borrowed by the Corporation under the authority of any Act which empowered the Corporation to borrow money for the purpose of erecting a Town Hall in the City of Hobart.

By-laws.

8 It shall be lawful for the Council from time to time to make, publish, alter, modify, amend, or repeal, in accordance with the provisions of Section Two hundred and seventy-four of the Principal Act, all such By-laws as the Council shall deem proper in regard to any of the matters following; viz.—

- I. The pace at which horses and other animals and vehicles may be ridden, or driven, or drawn through the streets of the City of Hobart :
- II. The protection of persons from injury or danger from the use of animals, vehicles, or bicycles, tricycles, and like machines in the streets of the City of Hobart :
- III. The prevention of the disfigurement of public and private property within the City of Hobart :
- IV. The regulation of the sale of laths, shingles, and other split or sawn timber indigenous to Tasmania :

And to impose for the breach or infringement of any By-law made under the authority of this Act, such penalty as is authorised by Section Two hundred and seventy-four of the Principal Act.

By-Laws validated.

9 Any rule or regulation heretofore purported to be made by the Council as a By-law in regard to any of the matters as to which the Council is by this Act authorised to make By-laws, shall have the same force and effect as if such rule or regulation had purported to be made under the authority of this Act and the Principal Act.

Council may grant gratuity to retiring officer, &c.

10 It shall be lawful for the Council to grant to the widow or children of any deceased officer of the Corporation such gratuity as the Council shall think proper, not exceeding a sum equal to the annual salary paid to such officer previous to his death.

Hobart Corporation.

- 11 It shall be lawful for the Council to establish a Provident Fund for the purpose of securing the payment of a sum of money to any officer or other person in the employment of the Corporation upon his retirement from the service of the Corporation, and to appropriate to such fund such portion, not exceeding One-half, as the Council shall think fit, of all fines and penalties payable to the Council upon summary convictions within the city. A.D. 1898.
Council may establish Provident Fund and appropriate One-half of all fines and penalties.
- 12 The twenty-fourth and twenty-fifth lines of Section Two hundred and twenty-five of the Principal Act are hereby repealed. Repeal.
- 13 This Act and the Principal Act and all other Acts amending the Principal Act shall be read and construed together as one Act. Acts to be read together.
