SCHEDULE.

AN AGREEMENT made the twenty-second day of September one thousand nine hundred and twenty-eight BETWEEN THE COMMONWEALTH OF AUSTRALIA (hereinafter called the "Commonwealth") of the one part and the STATE OF TASMANIA (hereinafter called the "State") of the other part.

WHEREAS the Parliament of the Commonwealth has approved that the Commonwealth may arrange with any State for the collection by State officers of the whole or part of the income tax payable in that State under Commonwealth law;

AND WHEREAS pursuant to such approval an arrangement and an agreement relating thereto were made between the Commonwealth and the State which Agreement bears date the tenth day of October one thousand nine hundred and twenty-three and is hereinafter called the "Principal Agreement";

AND WHEREAS by an Act of the Parliament of the State intituled "The Income Tax Collection Act 1923" the Principal Agreement was ratified and confirmed;

AND WHEREAS it is provided by Clause 21 of the Principal Agreement that the Principal Agreement should come into operation on the first day of July one thousand nine hundred and twenty-three and should continue in force for a period of five years and thereafter until the expiration of not less than six calendar months' notice in writing given by either party to the other of intention to determine it;

AND WHEREAS neither party has given to the other the notice referred to in Clause 21 of the Principal Agreement but the parties hereto have agreed that the period during which the Principal Agreement shall be in force shall instead of the period set forth in the Principal Agreement be the period of ten years commencing on the first day of July one thousand nine hundred and twenty-three and thereafter until the expiration of not less than six calendar months' notice in writing given by either party to the other of intention to determine it:

NOW IT IS MUTUALLY AGREED between the Commonwealth and the State that the Principal Agreement shall be read and construed in all respects as if Clause 21 of the Principal Agreement had been omitted therefrom and the following clause had been inserted in its stead:—

"21. This Agreement shall come into operation on the first day of July 1923 and shall continue in force for a period of ten years and thereafter until the expiration of not less than six calendar months' notice in writing given by either party to the other of intention to determine it"

CHAPTER I

The first part of the history of the United States is the history of the colonies. The colonies were first settled by Englishmen in 1607, and they grew in number and power until the Revolution in 1776.
