

TASMANIA

1917.

ANNO OCTAVO

GEORGII V. REGIS.

No. 39.

ANALYSIS.

1. Short title and incorporation with 63 Vict. No. 3.
2. Relief may be granted in certain cases of hardship where racing prohibited or restricted under Commonwealth Regulations.

AN ACT to further Amend "The Lotteries Amendment Act, 1899," and for other purposes. A.D. 1917.
[13 December, 1917.]

BE it enacted by His Excellency the Governor of Tasmania, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and House of Assembly, in Parliament Assembled, as follows :—

1 This Act may be cited as "The Lotteries Amendment Act (No. 2), 1917," and shall be construed as one with "The Lotteries Amendment Act, 1899" (hereinafter referred to as the Principal Act), and any amendment thereof. Short title and incorporation with 63 Vict. No. 3.

Lotteries Amendment (No. 2).

A.D. 1917.

Relief may be granted in certain cases of hardship where racing prohibited or restricted under Commonwealth Regulations.

2 After Section 4a of the Principal Act, the following Section is inserted:—

4aa—(1) Notwithstanding anything contained in this Act, where the racing of any horse-racing club has under the authority contained in any regulations made under “The War Precautions Act, 1914-1916 (Commonwealth)” been prohibited altogether or restricted to one racing day only in any year, the Minister, on the recommendation of the Commissioner, may by written notice under his hand grant to such club such relief from compliance with and exoneration from liability under the provisions of Section 4c of this Act and of paragraphs i., iv. and v. of Section Five of this Act, whilst the prohibition or restriction remains in force, as he considers reasonable having regard to the merits of the case.

(2) Such relief and exoneration may be granted as from a past date, and where any such horse-racing club shall have paid to the Commissioner a deposit under subsection (1) of Section 4c of this Act the Minister, on the recommendation of the Commissioner, may order the same, or such part thereof as he considers reasonable, to be repaid to such club out of the Consolidated Revenue, and the Treasurer of the State shall make repayment in accordance with such order.