AN ACT to further amend "The Legal Practitioners Act, 1896," and for other purposes.

A.D.
1916.

[8 December, 1916.]

BE it enacted by His Excellency the Governor of Tasmania, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and House of Assembly, in Parliament assembled, as follows:—

1 This Act may be cited as "The Legal Practitioners Amendment Act, 1916," and shall be read and construed as one with "The Legal Practitioners Act, 1896" (in this Act referred to as the Principal Act), and its amendments.

Short title and incorporation with 60 Vict. No. 43.

2 After Section Thirteen of the Principal Act the following section is inserted:—

Service as Judges' Associate to count as service under articles.

"13a—(1) Any person articted to a practitioner for any term prescribed by this Act may, with the consent of such practitioner, accept the office of and serve as Judges' Associate in this State for any part of the said term not exceeding One-third thereof.
