Water District.

3 The area of land included within the limits defined and set forth in the Schedule (4.) is hereby declared to be The Longford Water District.

Municipal Council to be Trustees until Trustees elected.

4 The Municipal Council of Longford shall be the Trustees of the Longford Water District until the publication in the Gazette, pursuant to Section Seven, of the names of the Trustees elected at the first election of Trustees under this Act, and upon such publication the Municipal Council of Longford shall forthwith cease to be the Trustees of the Longford Water District.

Election of Trustees.

First election of Trustees.

5 The Governor in Council shall, as soon as conveniently may be after the passing of this Act, by Notice in the Gazette, direct that on a day and at an hour and place therein named there shall be held within the Water District an election of Five Landholders of such District to be the Trustees of the Water District for the purposes of this Act; and such election shall be held accordingly, and the Trustees then elected shall hold office until they retire from office in the manner hereinafter provided.

Election to be before person appointed.

6—(1.) Such Notice shall be published in Three consecutive numbers of the Gazette, and twice in a newspaper circulating in the Water District, and shall direct that the election to be held thereunder shall be held before the person therein appointed Returning Officer for the purpose of such election; and nominations of persons for election as Trustees shall be forwarded to and be received by such Returning Officer Seven clear days before the day appointed for holding the election pursuant to such Notice, and the Returning Officer shall thereupon provide and do all things necessary for holding such election pursuant to this Act.

Period within which election to be held.

(2.) The date fixed by such Notice for holding the Election therein directed to be held shall not be less than Fifteen nor more than Thirty days after the date of the first publication of the Notice.

Expenses of first election.

(3.) All expenses of and incidental to the first election of the Trustees of the Water District shall be certified under the hand of the Returning

Longford Water.

Officer, and shall be paid by the Trustees out of the moneys at the disposal of the Trustees within Six months after the Election. A.D. 1898.

7—(1.) At the Election of Trustees held in pursuance of any such Notice as aforesaid, the person therein appointed Returning Officer for the purposes of the Election to be held thereunder shall preside at such Election, and shall have a casting vote in addition to his vote as a Landholder; and such Returning Officer shall, within Three days after such Election, prepare or cause to be prepared, and sign, and forward to the Minister of Lands and Works for Tasmania, a notification in writing of the names and places of residence of every person elected at such Election as a Trustee of the Water District. Returning Officer to notify result to Minister.

(2.) The Minister of Lands and Works for Tasmania upon receipt of such notification shall cause to be published in the Gazette the names of the persons elected at such Election as Trustees of the Water District, and shall also cause written notice of his Election, and of the time and place of the first meeting of the Trustees, to be served personally upon every person so elected, or to be left at his usual place of abode, or transmitted to him by post.

8 Subject to the provisions hereinafter contained, every Trustee shall hold office for a period of Two years, and shall retire in rotation as hereinafter provided. Trustees to hold office for Two years.

9 An Election of Trustees shall be held within the Water District in the month of December in the second year after the year in which the first Election of Trustees shall be held under this Act, and in the same month in every subsequent year, for the purpose of electing the requisite number of persons, being landholders of the District, to fill the vacancies caused by the retirement of Trustees in accordance with the provisions of this Act; and the Trustees shall fix a day in the month of December in every such subsequent year as aforesaid, and shall also fix an hour of the day between Ten of the clock in the forenoon and Four of the clock in the afternoon, and a place within such Water District, for holding such Annual Election of Trustees, and shall publish notice of the date and time and place of such Election once in the Gazette and twice in a public newspaper published or circulated in the Water District, and the First publication of such notice shall be not less than Ten clear days before the day on which the Poll is to be taken, and the last publication of such notice shall be made, whenever practicable, on the day on which the Poll is taken, and shall also cause to be posted up in the Office of the Trustees and at every Police Office, Police Station, and Post Office in such Water District, Five clear days at least before the day of holding the Election. Annual Election to be held in District.

10 At every Election of Trustees held under this Act every Landholder shall have a number of votes proportioned to the annual value as ascertained by the Assessment Roll of the property within the Water District owned or occupied by him, according to the scale mentioned and set forth in "The Rural Voting Act, 1884," and the word "Elector" as used in the said Act shall, for the purposes of this Act, mean and include a Landholder under this Act; and the provisions of "The Rural Voting Act, 1884," shall apply to any Election held under this Act. Scale of votes. 48 Vict. No. 26.

Longford Water.

A.D. 1898.

Qualification for voting.

11 Every person, whether male or female, of the age of Twenty-one years, whose name appears on the Valuation Roll comprising the property within the said Water District, as the owner or occupier of any property situate within the Water District shall, except as hereinafter provided, be entitled to vote at any Election of Trustees held under this Act.

Retirement of Trustees.

12—(1.) On the day fixed for holding the first Annual Election of Trustees after the first Election of Trustees, the Two Trustees who had the smallest number of votes at the first Election shall retire from office; and on the day fixed for holding the second Annual Election of Trustees, the other Three Trustees who were elected at the first Election shall retire from office; and on the day fixed for holding the Annual Election of Trustees in every subsequent year, every Trustee who was elected at the Annual Election of Trustees held in the second preceding year shall retire from office.

(2.) In case at the first Election of Trustees any Two or more Trustees are elected by an equality of votes, or, the Election is had without a Poll, it shall be determined by lot within One week, and published in the Gazette within One month after the Election, in what rotation, as between themselves, such Trustees having an equality of votes shall retire, or in what rotation the whole body of Trustees shall retire as aforesaid, as the case may be; and in any such case the Trustees shall retire according to the rotation so determined.

(3.) The retiring Trustees shall hold office until their successors are duly elected.

(4.) Every Trustee retiring from office shall, if qualified, be eligible for re-election.

Time prescribed for election may be extended.

13—(1.) In case the Trustees neglect or omit in any year to fix the day, place, and hour for holding any Annual Election of Trustees, or in case any such Election is not held upon any day appointed for that purpose in the month of December in any year in pursuance of this Act, the Governor in Council may extend the time for the Election of Trustees to any day to be fixed in manner hereinbefore provided before the Twenty-eighth day of February in any year.

(2.) In case no Election of Trustees is held in any year in manner hereinbefore directed, the Trustees then in office shall continue in office until the day which may be fixed in the month of December in the succeeding year for the Annual Election of Trustees, or until the Election of new Trustees, and so from time to time.

(3.) If no Election of Trustees shall be held in such succeeding year, it shall be lawful for the Governor in Council, upon the petition of any number of Landholders not less than Seven, to fix a day, hour, and place for holding an Election of Trustees, and notice thereof shall be published by the Minister of Lands and Works for Tasmania in the manner hereinbefore provided in respect of the Annual Election of Trustees.

Nomination of candidates for election.

14 The Trustees shall, in and by the notice of the time and place fixed for the Annual Election of Trustees, appoint a day for the reception of nominations as hereinafter mentioned, not less than Five days nor more than Seven days before the day fixed for such Annual Election; and the Chairman of the Trustees shall during the Three days immediately preceding the day so appointed, and up to Four of the clock in the afternoon of such day, receive nominations of Landholders qualified to be elected as Trustees for election at such Annual Election, which shall be opened by the Chairman at Four o'clock of the last day for receiving nominations at the place of nomination, and declared in the presence of such electors as may be present. A.D. 1898.

Longford Water.

15 In the event of more candidates being nominated for election than the number of Trustees required to be elected, the Chairman shall cause a list of candidates nominated for election to be published in at least Two numbers of a public newspaper circulating in the Water District, and shall also cause such list to be posted up in the Office of the Trustees and at every Police Office, Police Station, and Post Office in the Water District, not less than Three clear days before the day fixed for such Annual Election; and none but persons so nominated shall be capable of being elected. List of candidates to be published.

16 Every nomination of a candidate for election as a Trustee shall be in writing, and shall be signed by at least Two Landholders entitled to vote at such election of Trustees, and no such nomination shall contain the names of more candidates than the number of Trustees to be elected; and with such nomination there shall be delivered to the Chairman the written consent of such candidate or candidates to such nomination, and no nomination shall be received or recognised in the absence of such written consent; and every such nomination and consent may be written or printed, or partly written and partly printed, in the form of Schedule (1.); but no female shall be nominated or eligible to sit or act as a Trustee. Form of nomination.

17 Every Election of Trustees shall be by ballot, and the Chairman of the Trustees shall, except as hereinafter provided, preside at every such election; and in the event of the Chairman being a candidate at any such election, or being unable from any cause to preside at such election, the Trustees shall appoint another Trustee to preside at such election; and all Ballot-papers used at any Election shall be signed or stamped on the back thereof by the Chairman or the Trustee presiding thereat. Election to be by ballot and held before Chairman.

18 If no greater number of persons are nominated for election as provided in this Act than the number of Trustees to be elected, the Chairman shall, after the expiration of the time fixed for receiving nominations of candidates without any Poll being had, declare the persons so nominated to be elected as Trustees, and the persons so declared to be elected shall thenceforth be Trustees of the Water District. Mode of proceeding if no more persons nominated than Trustees to be elected.

19 Whenever a Polling-place is appointed as hereinafter provided, the Trustees, previously to the day fixed for the Annual Election, shall fix a time for commencing and closing the Poll, if any, for such election; and every such Poll shall remain open for Two hours at least; and every Landholder is hereby empowered to give, and shall, if he votes, give the number of votes to which he is entitled to any number of persons not exceeding the number of Trustees then to be elected; and every such election of Trustees shall be finished in one day, without any adjournment whatsoever. If the number of votes at an Election are equal for any Two or more persons, the Chairman shall have a casting vote in addition to his vote as an Elector, and shall thereby decide which of the said persons is or are elected. Election of Trustees. Chairman's casting vote.

Longford Water.

A.D. 1898.

Polling-places.

20 It shall be lawful for the Trustees to appoint a Polling-place in the Water District, and also to appoint any Officers requisite for the purpose of the Annual Election of Trustees, and to do all other necessary things preliminary or incidental to every such Annual Election.

Election and appointment of Trustees to be published.

21 Forthwith after every Annual Election of Trustees, the Chairman presiding at the Meeting at which such election took place shall cause to be published in the Gazette the names and places of residence respectively of every Trustee elected, and shall also cause notice in writing of his election to be served personally on, or left at the usual place of abode of, or transmitted by post to, every person elected.

Trustees to accept office or pay a fine.

22 Every person duly qualified and duly elected or appointed to the office of Trustee shall accept office by making and subscribing before a Justice of the Peace a declaration in the form in the Schedule (2) within One month after notice of his election or appointment has been served on him personally, or left at his usual place of abode, or been transmitted to him by post, or shall in lieu thereof pay to the Trustees a penalty of Twenty Pounds: Provided that, with the consent of the Trustees, the penalty may be reduced to any sum not less than Five Pounds. And every declaration shall be delivered by the Trustee who has made the same at the First Meeting of the Trustees thereafter at which he is present, to the Chairman of the Trustees.

Certain persons exempted from fines on refusal to accept office.

23 No Member of the Parliament of Tasmania, and no person disabled by deafness, blindness, or other permanent infirmity of body, or who is above the age of Sixty years, or who has already served the office of Trustee for the period of One year, or paid the penalty for not occupying such office, or for resigning such office within Three years next before the day on which he is re-elected or appointed, nor any person whose usual place of abode is not situate within the Water District, or who is absent from the Colony at the time of the election or appointment, or who, in the unanimous opinion of the other Members of the Trust, ought to be excused, shall be liable to any penalty for refusing or neglecting to accept the office of Trustee.

Refusal or failure to accept office.

24 If any person so elected or appointed a Trustee under this Act refuses or fails to accept such office, the same shall thereupon be deemed vacant, and shall be filled up by a fresh election or appointment.

Provides for death, &c. of Trustees during period of office.

25 If at any time during his continuance in office any Trustee dies, departs from Tasmania and remains absent therefrom for the space of Three months, ceases to be a Landholder, or resigns, or refuses, or from any cause whatsoever becomes incapable or unfit to act as a Trustee, or if his office be declared vacant, it shall be lawful for the surviving or continuing Trustees, and they are hereby required, within Thirty days, to appoint some fit and proper person, being a Landholder, to act in conjunction with such surviving or continuing Trustees in the place and stead of such first-mentioned Trustee: Provided, nevertheless, that whenever the office of any Trustee becomes vacant from any cause herein mentioned, the Chairman of the Trustees shall forthwith give notice thereof in two numbers of a public newspaper circulating in the Water District; and the Trustees shall not for a period of Seven days after the last publication of such notice proceed to fill up such vacancy; and if before the expiration of such period of Seven days a requisition in writing, signed by any number of Landholders not less than Fourteen, is presented to the Trustees requiring an Election to be held to supply such vacancy, the Trustees shall not appoint a new Trustee, but an Election shall be held to supply the vacancy aforesaid; and every such Election shall be conducted in the same manner in every respect as the Annual Election of Trustees: and every Trustee appointed or elected to fill any such vacancy shall retain his office so long only as the vacating Trustee would have retained the same if no vacancy had occurred.

Longford Water.

A.D. 1898.

26 If any person holding the office of Trustee, having had notice of the intention to hold such Meetings, is absent from Three consecutive Meetings of Trustees, extending over a period not less than Three months, without leave of absence granted by the Trustees, unless in case of illness, such person shall cease to hold such office, and the Trustees shall in any such case declare such office to be vacant, and the same shall be vacant accordingly.

Trustee absent from Three consecutive Meetings to vacate office.

27 All acts and proceedings relating to this Act which are directed to be had or done by the Trustees, and all the powers and authorities vested in them generally, shall and may be had, done, and exercised by the major part of the Trustees present at any Meetings of the Trustees, the whole number present not being less than Three; and any such Three Trustees shall form a quorum.

Quorum of Trustees.

New sec: subst by 1 Edward 7 No 17

28—(1.) The Trustees shall, at their first Meeting held after the first election of Trustees, and at their first Meeting held after each annual election of Trustees, by a majority of votes of the Trustees present, elect one of their body to be Chairman for the ensuing year; and if at any such Meeting there be an equality of votes in the election of Chairman, it shall be decided by lot which of the Trustees having an equal number of votes shall be Chairman. And such Chairman shall preside at all Meetings of the Trustees at which he is present; and if at any Meeting of Trustees the Chairman is not present, one of the Trustees present shall be elected Chairman of such Meeting by the majority of votes of the Trustees present thereat.

Election of Chairman of Trustees.

(2.) In case the Chairman shall die, or by writing under his hand delivered by him to the Trustees at any Meeting of Trustees, or to the Secretary of the Trustees, resign his office, or cease to be a Trustee, the Trustees present at the Meeting next after the occurrence of such vacancy shall choose one of their body to be Chairman, and the Chairman so chosen shall continue in office until the next Annual Meeting for the election of Trustees.

29 At all Meetings of Trustees all the Trustees present shall vote, save where it is herein otherwise provided, and the questions there considered shall be decided by open voting and by the majority present; and if there is an equal division of votes upon any question it shall be considered lost.

Equal division of votes.

30 No Trustee shall vote upon any matter in which such Trustee directly, by himself or his partners, has any pecuniary interest; and any Trustee who knowingly offends against this Section shall on conviction forfeit and pay for every such offence a sum not exceeding Fifty Pounds.

Trustee not to vote where he is pecuniarily interested.

Longford Water.

A.D. 1898.

Orders and proceedings of Trustees to be recorded.

31 All orders and proceedings of the Trustees, together with the names of the Trustees present at every Meeting, shall be entered in a book to be kept by the Trustees for that purpose, and be signed by the Chairman of the Meeting at which such orders or proceedings are from time to time confirmed, and such orders and proceedings so entered and signed by the Chairman of such Meeting shall be deemed to be original orders and proceedings.

Landholder may inspect Minutes.

32 Any Landholder shall be at liberty at all reasonable times, on payment of the sum of One Shilling, to inspect the Minute Book of the Trustees.

Incorporation and vesting of Property.

Incorporation.

33 The Trustees elected under this Act, and their successors, shall be a corporation, by the name of "The Longford Water Trust," with power to hold land and have a common seal; and immediately upon the publication in the Gazette pursuant to Section Seven of this Act of the names of the Trustees elected at the first election under this Act, all property, waterworks, goods, rights, and effects whatsoever theretofore vested in or belonging to the Municipal Council of Longford, as Trustees of the Longford Water District, shall forthwith, by virtue of this Act, and without the necessity of any Conveyance or Transfer, vest in and belong to "The Longford Water Trust" for the purposes of this Act.

*Powers of Trustees to divert and use Water.*Trustees empowered to divert water of South Esk River, and erect water-works.

34 Subject to the provisions herein contained, the Trustees are hereby empowered and authorised from time to time to take, divert, and appropriate such quantity of the waters of the South Esk River and other rivulets and streams as shall be required by the Trustees for any of the purposes herein mentioned; and from time to time to enter upon the said rivers, rivulets, and streams, and upon the banks and beds thereof, and to construct and erect on and in any portion of the banks and beds of the said river, rivulets, and streams such works as shall be necessary for the purposes of such taking and diversion and appropriation of so much of the said water of the said river, rivulets, and streams as aforesaid.

Purposes for which water so taken may be used.

35 It shall be lawful for the Trustees to use all or any portion of such water as aforesaid for any of the purposes hereinafter specified: viz. :—

- i. To supply the inhabitants of the Water District and the contiguous Districts with water for domestic and manufacturing purposes, and for motive power and for irrigation:
- ii. To supply any Railway Company, Tramway Company, or the Government Railways, or any person, with water for motive power or otherwise:
- iii. To work any machinery that may be acquired or erected by the Trustees or any other Corporate Body or person:
- iv. For supplying water to the Water District and contiguous Districts for any purpose that any person or Public or Corporate Body may require.

A.D. 1898.

Powers of Trustees in the Construction of Works.

36 The Trustees are hereby empowered to purchase or acquire from Thomas Affleck, or the owners or owner thereof, all water-races, dams, embankments, turbines, reservoirs, pipes, or waterworks situate at or near Newry, near Longford, in Tasmania, and heretofore used in connection with the Newry Mills and premises; and also all necessary rights of way and all property and effects which they may deem advisable to secure in connection therewith; and the Trustees are also empowered to use and dispose of the same, or any part thereof, by sale, lease, or otherwise for any purpose whatsoever.

Trustees may purchase water-races, &c.

37 The Trustees are also hereby empowered to purchase, lease, or acquire any corporeal or incorporeal hereditaments, or any chattel interest whatever, which they deem advisable for the purposes of this Act, and which they may think proper to purchase, lease, or acquire, including any water rights or water powers or waterworks, and any rights and privileges accessory to the same; and the Trustees are also empowered to dispose of the same or any part thereof by sale, lease, or otherwise to any person or body corporate for any purpose whatever.

Trustees may purchase any chattel interest

38 The Trustees are hereby further empowered to purchase, acquire, and take any Land which they may consider to be necessary for the purposes of this Act, and which they may think proper to purchase and take; and also to sell or lease the same, or any portion of the same.

Trustees may purchase land.

39 Notwithstanding anything hereinbefore contained, the Trustees shall, before exercising any of their powers under any of the Three preceding Sections (except in cases involving an outlay or liability not exceeding the sum of Two hundred and fifty Pounds, or in which the amount at stake does not at any time exceed that sum), duly convene by advertisement a Meeting of the Landholders, and lay before such Meeting full particulars of the transaction or matter proposed to be dealt with by the Trustees; and proper minutes shall be kept at any such Meeting, and duly recorded in the minute-book of the Trustees, and read over to such Meeting, and signed by the Chairman of such Meeting as correct; and the Trustees shall not exercise any of their powers under any of the Three preceding Sections (except in the cases aforesaid), unless at least Two-thirds of the Landholders present at such Meeting shall, by Resolution specifically dealing with the case in question, authorise the Trustees to do so, and then only in accordance with the terms of such Resolution; and unless the voting at any such Meeting shall be unanimous, the Chairman of the Meeting shall ascertain the exact state of the voting on all Motions before the Meeting (except merely formal ones) by a division; and on such division every Landholder shall have a number of votes proportioned to the annual value, as ascertained by the Assessment Roll, of the property within the District owned or occupied by him, according to the scale mentioned and set forth in "The Rural Voting Act, 1884."

Meetings of Landholders.

40 The Trustees, their officers and workmen, may, at all reasonable times in the day-time, upon giving Twenty-four hours' previous notice in writing, enter into and upon any lands required for the purposes of this Act, for the purpose of surveying or valuing the same.

Power to enter upon land.

Longford Water.

A.D. 1898.

21 Vict. No. 11
incorporated.

41 The Lands Clauses Act shall, except as hereby expressly varied, be incorporated with this Act; but—

- i. There shall not be incorporated with this Act the Sections and provisions of the said Act hereinafter mentioned; that is to say,—Section Eight, whereby it is provided that the Capital is to be subscribed before the compulsory provisions are to be put in force; Section Nine, whereby it is provided that the Certificate of the Justices shall be evidence that the Capital has been subscribed:
- ii. In the construction of this Act and the said incorporated Act this Act shall be deemed to be the Special Act, and the Trustees shall be deemed to be “the Promoters of the undertaking.”

Entry upon land.

42 For the purposes of this Act it shall be lawful for the Trustees to enter upon any land and to take levels of the same, and to set out such parts of such land as the Trustees think necessary, and to dig, cut, trench, and break up the soil of such land, and to remove all earth, stone, trees, or other things dug or obtained out of the same, and to use such materials in the construction and upholding of the works authorised by this Act.

Trustees to give notice prior to first entry upon land.

43 Prior to the first entry upon any land by the Trustees under the preceding Section for the purposes of this Act, not less than Seven days' notice of the intention of the Trustees to enter shall be given by the Trustees to the owner and occupier, if any; but no notice shall be necessary previous to any subsequent entry by the Trustees upon such land for the purposes of this Act.

If compensation excessive Trustees may give up land.

44 Where the Trustees give notice of their intention to take land for any of the purposes hereinbefore set forth, and the compensation in respect thereof is determined as in cases of disputed compensation, if the Trustees deem it inexpedient to pay the amount of compensation so determined, they may, within Twenty-one days after notice of the amount of compensation so determined on, withdraw the first-mentioned notice on payment of all the costs of reference and award.

Construction of works.

45 It shall be lawful for the Trustees, from time to time, to make, construct, lay down, maintain, alter, or discontinue such Waterworks upon any land as the Trustees think necessary for the purposes of this Act; and also to enter into any contract concerning the same that they may think advisable; and also, with the consent of the Governor in Council, to dispose of any waterworks by sale, lease, or otherwise, whenever they shall deem it advantageous so to do.

Power to sell.

Trustees to do as little damage as may be.

46 In the exercise of the powers conferred by this Act the Trustees shall do as little damage as can be, and, in all cases where it can be done, shall provide other watering-places, drains, and channels for the use of adjoining lands in place of any such as are taken away or interrupted by the Trustees.

Trustees to make compensation for damage done by execution of works.

47 The Trustees shall make compensation, in manner hereafter provided, to all persons having a right to the use of any water taken or diverted by the Trustees under the authority of this Act; or having a lawful interest in any land, other than land purchased by the Trustees, in or upon which any waterworks may hereafter be constructed, or which may be injuriously affected by the construction and maintenance of the waterworks under this Act; or otherwise by the execution by the Trustees of the powers hereby conferred for all damage sustained by reason of the exercise as to such land or water of the powers vested in the Trustees by this Act.

Longford Water.

A.D. 1898.

48 Any person claiming such compensation shall prefer his claim by notice in writing addressed to the Trustees, and served upon the Secretary or Chairman of the Trustees, in which notice shall be specified the place of abode of the claimant; the particular act occasioning the damage for which compensation is claimed; the nature and amount of such damage; and the nature of the title or interest of such claimant in or to the water or land, as the case may be, in respect of which the claim is preferred. And if any such person and the Trustees do not agree as to the amount of such compensation, the same and the application thereof shall be determined by arbitration in the manner provided by "The Lands Clauses Act" in cases of disputed compensation, or, at the option of either the Trustees or Claimant, by a Judge of the Supreme Court, upon either party giving Seven days' notice to the other after the delivery of such claim; and the amount of such compensation to be paid in such case shall be ascertained by the Judge in such manner as he deems advisable, and subject to such conditions as such Judge sees fit to impose. And all costs of any proceedings taken under this Act before a Judge shall be in his discretion as to the party by whom such costs shall be borne, and payment thereof may be enforced and recoverable by the party to whom such costs shall be payable, as in Equity.

Persons damaged to make claim for compensation.

Compensation how to be ascertained.

49 In determining such claims regard shall be had to any benefit which may be done or accrue to the claimant by or as the result of the provisions in this Act contained.

Regard to be had to any benefit to accrue.

50 If the Trustees, by notice in writing, require any person to make claim for compensation for any damage occasioned by the exercise previously to the service of such notice of any of the powers conferred on the Trustees by this Act, such person shall not be entitled to compensation for any damage sustained by reason of the exercise of any such powers previously to the service of such notice unless he prefers his claim, in manner aforesaid, within Six months after service of such notice.

Persons not making claim when required to be barred.

51 If either party is dissatisfied with the award of the arbitrators or the umpire appointed to determine the amount of compensation to be paid to the owner or occupier of any land taken or occupied under the authority of this Act, or with the decision of the arbitrator or umpire appointed to determine the amount of compensation to be paid to any person claiming the right to use any of the water diverted or appropriated by the Trustees, the dissatisfied party, when the amount of compensation awarded by the arbitrators or the umpire exceeds Fifty Pounds, may appeal from the award of the arbitrators or the umpire, as the case may be, to a Judge of the Supreme Court, and may have the amount of compensation fixed by a Judge of the said Court, in the manner hereinafter provided.

Dissatisfied party may appeal to a Judge of the Supreme Court.

Longford Water.

A.D. 1898.

Procedure upon appeal.

52 If the dissatisfied party desire to appeal from the award of the arbitrators or umpire as aforesaid, he shall, within Fourteen days after the delivery to him of such award or a copy thereof, give notice in writing to the other party of his intention to appeal, and shall, within One month after service of such notice upon the opposite party, prosecute such appeal in accordance with the Rules made by the Judges for conducting appeals under "The Main Line Railway Amendment Act, No. 2," so far as such Rules are applicable; and the amount of the compensation to be paid in such case shall be ascertained by a Judge of the Supreme Court in such manner as he deems advisable, and subject to such conditions as such Judge sees fit to impose; and the Judge may also in his discretion, make any Order as to the party by whom the cost of appeal shall be borne: Provided, that a Judge of the Supreme Court may, upon what he shall deem sufficient cause, allow an appeal under this Act to be prosecuted after the expiration of the time hereinbefore allowed for that purpose; but no appeal shall be allowed after the expiration of Three months after the service of notice of intention to appeal.

Award not to be made a Rule of Court until Judge determines matter in dispute.

53 Where the dissatisfied party gives such notice of appeal as aforesaid, then the award given by the arbitrators or the umpire shall not be made a Rule of Court until a Judge of the Supreme Court, by an Order in writing under his hand, determines the matter in dispute, or the time hereinbefore allowed for prosecuting the appeal has expired.

Land acquired under this Act not subject to Lands Clauses Act.

54 No land acquired or held by the Trustees under the authority of this Act and used for the purposes of this Act shall, unless with the consent of the Governor in Council, be subject to the operation of The Lands Clauses Act or any Act incorporating the whole or any portion of that Act.

Before commencing works plans to be submitted for approval.

55 Before commencing or undertaking any of the works authorised by this Act, the Trustees shall lay before the Governor in Council detailed plans, sections, and specifications of such works, and it shall be lawful for the Governor in Council thereupon to refer such plans, sections, and specifications to the Director of Public Works, or other competent person, who is hereby required to examine and consider the same, and fully report thereupon to the Governor in Council with reference to the probable expense, practicability, and nature of such works; and no such works shall be undertaken until the same have been approved of by the Governor in Council, and notice in writing of such approval received by the Trustees.

Breaking up of Streets.

Power to break up streets, &c., and to open drains.

56 The Trustees may, from time to time, open and break up the soil and pavement of any street within the Water District or any Road District or Town or contiguous District through which it may be expedient to convey water from the said river, rivulets, and streams for the purposes of this Act, and may open and break up any sewers, drains, or tunnels within or under such streets or roads, and lay down and place therein or thereunder pipes, service pipes, and other works and engines, and, from time to time, repair, alter, or remove the same; and, for the purposes aforesaid, remove and use all earth and materials in and under such streets and roads, and do all other acts which the Trustees from time to time deem necessary for supplying water to the inhabitants of the said town and contiguous districts, doing as little damage as can be in the execution of the powers hereby granted. A.D. 1898.

57 The Trustees shall, before opening or breaking up any street without the Water District, give to the persons, if any, under whose control or management the same may be, or to their clerk, surveyor, or other officer, notice in writing of the intention of the Trustees to open or break up the same not less than Three clear days before beginning such work, except in cases of emergency arising from defects in any of the pipes or other works, and then as soon as possible after the beginning of the work or the necessity for the same has arisen.

Notice to be served on persons, if any, having control of streets, without the Town.

58 No street without the Water District shall, except in the cases of emergency aforesaid, be opened or broken up except under the superintendence of the persons, if any, having the control or management thereof, or of their officer, and according to such plan as is approved of by such persons or their officer, or, in case of any difference respecting such plan, then according to such plans as may be determined by Two Justices: Provided, that if the persons having such control or management as aforesaid and their officer fail to attend at the time fixed for the opening of any such street after having had such notice of the intention of the Trustees as aforesaid, or do not propose any plan for breaking up or opening the same, or refuse or neglect to superintend the operation, the Trustees may perform the work specified in such notice without the superintendence of such persons or their officer.

Streets not to be broken up except under superintendence of person having control of same.

59 When the Trustees open or break up any street, sewer, drain, or tunnel, they shall with all convenient speed complete the work for which the same was broken up, and fill in the ground, and reinstate and make good the street, sewer, drain, or tunnel so opened or broken up, and carry away the rubbish occasioned thereby, and shall at all times whilst any such street is so opened or broken up cause the same to be fenced and guarded, and a light sufficient for the warning of passengers to be set up and kept against the same every night.

Streets, &c. broken up to be reinstated without delay.

Supply of Water.

60 The Trustees shall at the request of the owner or occupier of any house or part of a house occupied as a separate dwelling situated upon property within the Water District, the outer boundary of which property is within Fifty feet of any main or other pipe, furnish to such person within such dwelling-house, by means of communication pipes and other necessary and proper apparatus, to be provided, laid down, and maintained by the Trustees at the cost of such person, a sufficient supply of water for his domestic purposes, including a supply for any private water-closets and fixed bath in such dwelling-house.

Supply of water for domestic use within the Water District.

61 The Trustees may, in their absolute discretion, cause pipes to be laid down, and water to be brought to such places beyond the Water District as the Trustees see fit upon the application of any owner or occupier of any house, building, or other premises in any such places, on payment of the expense of providing and laying down such pipes: Provided that such owner or occupier shall execute an agreement binding himself to take such supply of water for Three successive years at least to the satisfaction of the Trustees, and on such terms for the payment for such water supply as may be agreed on.

Supply of water to places beyond the Water District.

Longford Water.

A.D. 1898.

Supply of water
for steam engines, fountains, &c.

62 The Trustees may, if they see fit, furnish to any person a supply of water for steam engines, or for warming any dwelling-house or other premises, or for working any machine or apparatus, or for fountains or ornamental purposes, or for flushing sewers or drains, or for any trade, manufacture, or business, whether carried on in any dwelling-house or in other premises, or for any other purpose not domestic, or not provided for by the following Section of this Act, such respective supplies being so furnished at such charges and upon such terms and conditions as may be agreed upon between the Trustees and the person desiring the same. Provided always that, as far as possible, the charge for such supply of water shall be uniform to all persons in the same circumstances and requiring the same extent of supply.

Supply of water
for horses, stables, &c.

63 The Trustees may, once in every year, make and levy a charge not exceeding the sum of Five Pounds to be paid by the respective owners or occupiers of all stables, market gardens, and other gardens, and the owners of all horses and carriages within the Water District for the purposes of this Act; and such charge shall be payable by the respective owners and occupiers, in addition to the Rate payable under Section Seventy-eight of this Act, and shall be recoverable in the same manner as that Rate.

Trustees may determine the description of service pipes to be used.

64 The description of pipes and other apparatus by means of which water is laid on, distributed, or supplied within the outer boundary of any premises, shall be such as the Trustees determine, either generally or in classes of cases or in any particular case; and the Trustees shall not be bound to supply water in any case in which the required description of pipes or other apparatus is not provided, and may cut off the pipes or turn off the water from any premises supplied with water until the required description of pipes or other apparatus is provided.

Trustees may supply water by measure.

65 The Trustees may supply any person within the limits of this Act with water for other than domestic purposes, by measure or otherwise, at such charge and subject to such conditions as the Trustees may prescribe; but such charge shall not exceed the sum of One Shilling for every One thousand gallons of water so supplied.

Trustees may attach meters at any time.

66 The Trustees may, whenever they see fit so to do, attach a meter to the pipe supplying water to any person, and thereupon all water supplied to such person shall be drawn only through such meter; and there shall be payable by such person to the Trustees, besides the amount of any water rate or charge for water supplied to such person, such sum or sums of money as rent for the use of such meter, and at such time or times as may be prescribed.

Trustees may let meters.

67 The Trustees may let for hire to any consumer of water supplied by measure any meter or instrument for measuring the quantity of water supplied and consumed, and any pipes and apparatus for the conveyance, reception, or storage of the water, for such remuneration in money as may be agreed upon between the Trustees and the consumer, which shall be recoverable in the same manner as the Rates due to the Trustees for water.

Any meter let for hire as aforesaid shall be attached and affixed to the pipe to which the same is intended to be attached and affixed by or under the superintendence of such Officer or Servant of the Trustees as they shall appoint for that purpose, and not otherwise. A.D. 1898.

68 Such meters, instruments, or other apparatus shall not be subject to distress for rent of the premises where the same are used, or to be attached or taken in execution under any process of the Supreme Court or any inferior Court, or under or in pursuance of any adjudication or Order in Bankruptcy, or other legal proceedings against or affecting the consumer of water, or the occupier of the premises, or other person in whose possession the meters, pipes, instruments, or other apparatus may be. Meters of Trustees not distrainable.

69 Any person acting under the authority of the Trustees may at all reasonable times enter any house, buildings, or lands to, through, or into which water is supplied by the Trustees by measure, in order to inspect the meters, instruments, pipes, and apparatus for the measuring, conveyance, reception, or storage of water, or for the purpose of ascertaining the quantity of water supplied or consumed, and may from time to time enter any house, buildings, or lands for the purpose of removing any meter, instrument, pipe, or apparatus, the property of the Trustees; and if any one hinders such person from entering or making such inspection, or effecting such removal, or if any one, not being an Officer or in the employ of the Trustees, in any manner injures or interferes with any meter placed for the purpose herein named, he shall for every such offence be liable to a penalty not exceeding Five Pounds, in addition to the amount of damage or injury done. Officers of the Trustees may inspect meters.

70 Every person requiring to remove or alter the position of any meter shall give Two days' notice in writing to that effect to the Trustees, who will cause a registration of the quantity of water used to be taken and such removal or alteration to be made; and the expense of so doing shall be paid by such person; and no alteration shall be made but by or under the direction of an Officer of the Trustees, nor until the permission of the Trustees has been obtained. Notice of removal of or change in meter.

Fouling the Water by Gas.

71 For the purpose of ascertaining whether the water supplied by the Trustees is fouled by gas of any person making or supplying gas, the Trustees may dig up the ground and examine the pipes and works of the persons making or supplying gas: Provided that, before proceeding so to dig and examine, the Trustees shall give Twenty-four hours' notice in writing to the person so making or supplying gas of the time at which such digging and examination are intended to take place. Power to examine gas-pipes to ascertain whether water is fouled.

72 If upon such examination it appears that such water has been fouled by gas belonging to such persons, the expenses of the digging, examination, and repair of the street or place disturbed in any such examination shall be paid by the persons making or supplying the gas; but if upon such examination it appears that the water has not been fouled by the gas of such persons, then the Trustees shall pay all the expenses of the examination and repair, and shall also make good to the said persons any injury which may be occasioned to those works by such examination. The expenses to abide the result of the examination.

Longford Water.

A.D. 1898.

How expenses to be ascertained.

73 The amount of the expenses of every such examination, any repair, and any injury done to the Trustees shall, in case of any dispute about the same, together with the costs of ascertaining and recovering the same, be ascertained and recovered in a summary way by and before any Two or more Justices of the Peace.

Waste or Misuse of Water.

Service pipes to be kept in repair.

74 In case any person, when required by the Trustees, neglects, for the space of Twenty-four hours after written notice to do so, to keep the pipes and other apparatus by means of which his premises are supplied with water in good repair, the Trustees may cut off the pipe or turn off the water from such premises until such pipes and other apparatus are sufficiently repaired.

Trustees may repair service pipes.

75 The Trustees may repair any such pipe or other apparatus so as to prevent any such waste of water; and the expenses of any such repair shall be repaid to the Trustees by the person so allowing the same to be out of repair, and may be recovered by the Trustees from such person in a summary way.

Cisterns, &c. to be constructed so as to prevent waste or impurity.

76 Every cistern or other receptacle for water which the Trustees may permit to be used, and every closet, soil-pan, and private bath supplied with water by the Trustees, shall be so constructed and used in such manner as may be prescribed by regulations to be made by the Trustees so as effectually to prevent the waste, misuse, or undue consumption of water, and the flow or return of foul air or other noisome or impure matter in the mains or pipes of the Trustees, or into any pipes connected or communicating therewith; and the Trustees may cut off the pipe attached to or turn off the water supplied to any cistern or other receptacle for water so permitted to be used, or any closet, soil-pan, or private bath which is not constructed and used as prescribed as aforesaid, until such cistern or other receptacle for water, or such closet, soil-pan, or private bath is constructed and used as prescribed aforesaid.

Power to enter premises to inspect.

77 The Superintendent of Waterworks, or any other person acting under the authority of the Trustees, may enter into any house or premises supplied with water by virtue of this Act in order to examine if there is any waste or misuse of such water; and if such Superintendent of Waterworks or other person is at any such time refused admittance into such house or premises for the purposes aforesaid, or is prevented from making such examination as aforesaid, the Trustees may cut off the water from such house or premises.

Rating.

Trustees to fix Water Rate.

78 The Trustees shall, once or oftener in every year, make and levy a Water Rate or Water Rates to be paid by the respective owners or occupiers of all property within the Water District for the purposes of this Act; and such Rates in any one year may be of an amount not exceeding the sum of Ten Pounds per centum per annum on the assessed annual value of such property, according to the Assessment Roll in force for the time being. Provided that the Water Rate payable in respect of any house or dwelling within the Water District shall in no case be less than Twelve Shillings per annum.

Longford Water.

79 No person shall be liable to the payment of the said Water Rate in a greater proportion than upon One-fourth part only of such assessment of Rate on any land or houses or buildings owned or occupied by such person unless the same are actually supplied with water for domestic or other purposes, or unless the mains or other pipes of the Trustees are laid down and properly supplied with water within Fifty feet from the outer boundary of such lands, or houses or buildings.

A.D. 1898.

One fourth only of Rate to be levied unless premises are supplied with water.

80 Upon the making of any Water Rate under this Act, a notice, signed by the Chairman and not less than Two other Trustees, specifying the amount of such Rate, the period for which the same is made, and at what times the same is payable, shall be published in the Gazette and also in at least Two numbers of a public newspaper circulating in the Water District; and upon any such notice being so published, the Rate therein mentioned shall be payable and paid at the times specified in such notice by the persons liable to pay the same, according to the Assessment Roll then in force for the purposes of this Act, and it shall not be necessary in any such notice to set forth the names of the persons liable to the payment of the Rate or the sums which according to such Rate such persons are liable to pay, or any other particulars than are hereinbefore mentioned.

Upon making Rate notice of same to be given.

81 Where several buildings are supplied by one common pipe, the several owners or occupiers of such buildings shall be liable to the payment of the same Rate for the supply of water as they would have been liable to if each of such several buildings had been supplied with water from the Waterworks by a separate pipe.

Where several premises supplied by one pipe each to pay.

82 If any person liable as herein provided to pay any amount of Water Rate neglects to pay the same within due time after the same has been lawfully demanded, the Trustees, after giving Twenty-four hours' written notice of their intention so to do, may stop the water from flowing into the premises in respect of which such Rate is payable, by cutting off the pipe to such premises, or by such means as the Trustees think fit, and may recover the amount due from such person, with the expense of cutting off the water, in the same manner as any Municipal Rate is recoverable.

Rate how to be recovered.

83 All such Rates shall be payable in advance at such periods as the Trustees from time to time appoint, and shall be payable in the first instance by the occupier of the property at the time when the same is made payable by such notice as aforesaid.

Rates payable, and occupiers liable for Rate in first instance.

84 In case at the time when any Rate is made payable by such notice as aforesaid there is no occupier of any property, or the occupier cannot be found or is not known, the Rate in respect of such property shall be payable by and recoverable from the owner in the first instance, who shall be entitled to recover the same from the tenant, if any, if not paid on demand, by distress as for rent in arrear, or as money paid to his use. But nothing herein shall affect as between themselves any agreement made between the landlord and tenant as to the payment of the Rate.

If no occupier, owner liable in first instance.

85 In case any change of occupation of any property takes place after the time when any Rate is made payable by such notice as aforesaid, and before the Rate due in respect of such property is paid or recovered, it shall be lawful for the Trustees to recover such Rate in arrear from the person who is the occupier of such property at the time of demand or levy, as the case may be, or, if there is no such occupier then from the owner of such property, and any such occupier, if tenant, shall be entitled to recover the same Rate so paid from the person who was occupier when the Rate became payable as money paid to his use; and any owner who has paid or from whom has been recovered any amount of Rate in any such case where there is no occupier at the time of demand or levy, may recover such amount of Rate from the tenant, if any, at the time when such amount of Rate was made payable.

Provides for change of ownership.

86 In case any change of ownership of any property takes place after the time when any Rate is made payable by such notice as aforesaid, and before the Rate due in respect of such property is paid or recovered, any amount of Rate in arrear paid by or recovered from the owner for the time being of such property shall be recoverable by him from the person who was owner of such property when such amount of Rate became payable as money paid to his use.

Recovery of Rate
in case of subdivision of property.

87 Every owner or lessor of property in the Water District shall, upon request in writing, to be left at or posted to his usual residence, from the Chairman of the Trustees, deliver or cause to be delivered to such Chairman forthwith a statement in writing setting forth the names of the tenants or occupiers of his property or any part thereof, also the rent payable by each such tenant or occupier, and the area of their respective holdings; and if any owner or occupier neglects so to deliver or cause to be delivered such statement, he shall be liable to pay to the Trustees the Rate payable in respect of such property.

Recovery of Rate.

88 Every such Rate shall be paid by the persons liable to pay the same to the Trustees or a Collector of Water Rate appointed by the Trustees; and in case any such person fails to pay the amount of any such Rate for which he is liable for the space of Fourteen days after the same has been demanded by any such Collector, it shall be lawful for any Justice of the Peace, and he is hereby authorised and required, to summon the defaulter to appear before him or any other Justice of the Peace, at a time and place to be mentioned in the Summons, to show cause why the Rate in arrear should not be paid; and in case the defaulter fail to appear according to the exigency of the Summons, or no sufficient cause for non-payment be shown, the Justice may, and he is hereby authorised and required, to grant a warrant under his hand authorising and directing any such Collector or some other fit person to distrain the goods and chattels of such person, whether the same are on the property in respect of which the Rate is payable or elsewhere, and to cause such goods and chattels when distrained to be sold, and out of the moneys to arise by such sale to pay all costs, charges, and expenses attendant upon such distress and sale, and in the next place to pay the amount of the Rate for which such distress and sale are made, and to pay over the surplus, if any, on demand, to the person whose goods and chattels have been so distrained and sold as aforesaid.

Demand of Rate.

89 Any Rate may be demanded by any Collector of Water Rate by written or printed, or partly written and partly printed notice,

Longford Water.

specifying the amount of Rate demanded, the date of making the Rate, and the property in respect of which the Rate is demanded, left at, or posted to the usual or last known place of abode of the person from whom the Rate is sought to be recovered, if such place can after diligent inquiry be discovered, but if not, then affixed to some conspicuous part of the property in respect of which the Rate is demanded.

A.D. 1898.

90 All goods and chattels whatsoever found upon the property in respect of which any such Rate is payable, to whomsoever the same may belong, shall be liable to be taken under Warrant of Distress issued for the recovery of such Rate: Provided, that in case of change of occupation as hereinbefore mentioned, the same shall not be liable after the expiration of Three months from the time when such Rate is made payable; and such Warrant of Distress may be in the form in Schedule (3.).

All goods found on property liable to Rate.

91 In event of any distress so made as aforesaid not realising sufficient to pay such Rates, costs, charges, and expenses as aforesaid, it shall be lawful from time to time to make further and other distress in manner aforesaid until the whole amount of such Rate, costs, charges, and expenses has been fully paid.

Further distress in case first is insufficient.

92 The goods and chattels distrained under any such warrant of distress shall be sold and disposed of within any time, not being less than Four days, after the making of the distress.

Time of sale of goods distrained.

93 Any person deeming himself aggrieved by the amount of the costs, charges, and expenses with which he is charged as attendant upon any such distress and sale, may forthwith apply to the Justice issuing the warrant of distress, and such Justice is hereby authorised and empowered, after proper investigation by taking any evidence the disputing parties may have to lay before him, to make such Order in the matter as to him seems just; and any person who disobeys or fails to comply with such Order shall incur a penalty not exceeding Five Pounds.

Appeal to Justices against costs of Distress.

94 No distress made under the authority of this Act shall be deemed unlawful, or the person making the same be deemed a trespasser, on account of any defect or want of form in the warrant of distress, or in any other proceeding relating to such distress; nor shall the person distraining be deemed a trespasser ab initio on account of any irregularity which he may afterwards commit, but the person aggrieved by such irregularity may recover full satisfaction for special damage in an action on the case.

Distress not unlawful for want of form.

95 The provisions of "An Act to facilitate the Collection and Recovery of Rates," and every Amendment thereof, shall be applicable to the collection and recovery of Rates under this Act.

Provisions of 22 Vict. No. 27 applied.

96 The like proceedings may be had for recovering and enforcing the payment of any expenses incurred in the execution of this Act which may become payable by any person to the Trustees, and also of any charge for the supply of water by the Trustees under this Act, other than Water Rate, as in the case of any Water Rate.

Charges for water how recovered.

Longford Water.

A.D. 1898.

Unpaid Rate
shall be a charge upon property.

97 Any unpaid Rate, with interest thereon at the rate of Four Pounds per centum per annum, shall be and remain a charge upon the property in respect of which such Rate is payable, and may be recovered at any future time as if the then occupier had himself been liable to the payment of the Rate so remaining unpaid; and the production of the receipt for such overdue Rate paid by or recovered from any tenant for any Rate due before the commencement of his tenancy shall be a discharge for the amount so paid or recovered in payment of rent to the landlord, and such landlord shall be entitled to recover from the person who was tenant when the Rate became payable the Rate to which such tenant was liable as money paid to his use.

Notice of intention to let or sell.

98 Whenever the Rate payable in respect of any property shall have been in arrear for the space of Five years and upwards, it shall be lawful for the Trustees to cause to be published for three consecutive weeks in the Gazette and twice in a newspaper circulating in the Water District, a notice, specifying the property and the amount of Rate due in respect thereof, and stating that if the same be not paid within Six months from the first publication of such notice the Trustees will let the property from year to year as provided by this Act, or will apply to the Supreme Court for a sale thereof in the manner described in this Act.

Trustees may let
year.

99 If after Six months from the first publication of such notice the said Rate due at the time of such first publication is still unpaid, the Trustees may let such property, or any part thereof, from year to year, and may receive the rents and profits thereof and apply the same towards the payment of the said Rate or part thereof, and of the interest payable thereon at the rate of Four Pounds per centum per annum as aforesaid, and of costs, charges, and expenses, and hold any surplus in trust for the rightful owner of such property.

Trustees may apply to Supreme Court for sale.

100 If after Six months from the first publication of such notice the said Rate due at the time of such first publication is still unpaid, the Trustees, instead of letting such property, may, by petition to the Supreme Court, or a Judge thereof, apply for a sale of the property described in such notice, or of so much thereof as may be necessary to produce the amount of Rate due in respect thereof, and of the interest payable thereon, and the Court or Judge, on being satisfied by affidavit or otherwise that Six calendar months' notice of such petition has been served on the owner of such land, or left at his usual or last known place of abode in Tasmania, or, in case no owner can be found, then that such notice has been affixed and has constantly been kept affixed in a conspicuous place upon such property, and has also been inserted for Three weeks in the Gazette and twice in a newspaper circulating in the Water District, and that the Rate alleged to be in arrear is lawfully due and was in arrear at the time of the first publication of such notice in the Gazette, and that all things required by this Act to be done by the Trustees have been done, shall order the sale of the said property or so much thereof as shall be sufficient to pay all rates due or accrued due in respect of such property up to the time of sale, and the interest payable thereon, together with all costs, charges, and expenses of and attending the application, and of and attending the sale of such property, and that the proceeds be paid into Court.

Longford Water.

101 The Supreme Court or a Judge thereof shall order payment of the said Rate and interest thereon, costs, charges, and expenses to be first made out of the proceeds of the sale, and the conveyance or transfer, as the case may be, shall be executed by the Registrar, or such other officer of the Court as the Court may direct, to the purchaser, his heirs and assigns, in such form as shall be approved by the Court or a Judge; and such conveyance or transfer shall vest the property sold in the purchaser for an estate in fee simple free from encumbrances, and in cases where the land is under The Real Property Act the purchaser shall be entitled to receive a Certificate of Title to the property purchased; and the balance arising from the proceeds of such sale shall be subject to any Orders of the Court for the benefit of the parties interested therein.

A.D. 1898.

Application of proceeds of sale.

102 It shall be lawful for the Trustees, upon the complaint of any person liable to the payment of any Rate, to remit or excuse the payment thereof, or any part thereof, on account of the poverty of such person; and the Trustees shall also remit payment of half the Rate whenever the house in respect of which such Rate is levied has been unoccupied for the unbroken period of Six calendar months or upwards during the year for which such Rate is levied: Provided application in writing be made, and the applicant satisfy the Chairman of Trustees that such house has been so unoccupied.

Power to remit
Rates on account of poverty.Borrowing Money.

103 It shall be lawful for the Governor in Council, from time to time, to grant to the Trustees as a loan or loans for carrying out the objects of this Act, any sum or sums of money not exceeding in the whole Three thousand Pounds (£3000), under and subject to the provisions of "The Local Public Works Loans Act, 1890," and in addition to any loan already granted.

Governor in Council may grant loan.

54 Vict. No. 30.

104 The power to borrow money hereinbefore conferred upon the Trustees shall be exercised in accordance with and subject to the provisions of "The Local Bodies Loans Act," and whenever in that Act the terms "Local Bodies," or "Municipal Council," or "Municipality" are used, the same shall, for the purposes of this Act, be deemed to mean the Trustees of the Water District of Longford; and the terms "Warden" and "Council Clerk" shall, for the purposes of this Act, respectively be deemed to mean the Chairman of the Trustees and the Secretary to the said Trustees: Provided, that Sections Five, Seven, Eight, Nine, and Twenty-eight of "The Local Bodies Loans Act" shall not apply to this Act.

Powers of
45 Vict. No. 16
to be exercised by Trustees.Officers and their Accountability.

105—(1.) The Trustees shall, from time to time, appoint a Treasurer, who may be one of the Trustees, and a Secretary, and may, from time to time, appoint and employ a Solicitor, Clerk, and such Surveyors, Collectors of Water Rate, and other officers, as the Trustees think necessary and proper; and from time to time may remove any of such officers, and appoint others in the room of such as are so removed, or as may die, resign, or discontinue their offices ; and may, out of the moneys at the disposal of the Trustees under this Act, pay such salaries and allowances to the said officers respectively as the Trustees think reasonable.

(2.) Nothing herein contained shall prevent the same person from being appointed to hold more than one of such offices at the same time, if the Trustees so think fit, except as hereinafter provided.

(3.) It shall not be lawful for the Trustees to appoint the same person to be a Collector and also Treasurer of the Trustees.

Trustees not to be Officers.

106 Every person holding any office or place of profit in the gift or disposal of the Trustees, other than that of Treasurer, shall be disqualified from being a Trustee, and if any Trustee is appointed to any such office or place of profit he shall thereupon cease to be a Trustee : Provided, that any Trustee who is appointed Treasurer shall be liable to all the provisions of this Act relating to such officer in the same manner as if he were not a Trustee.

Security from Officers.

107 Before any person, whether Treasurer, Clerk, Collector, or other officer, who is entrusted by the Trustees with the custody or control of moneys by virtue of his office, enters upon such office, the Chairman of Trustees shall take sufficient security for the faithful execution thereof.

Officers to keep account books.

108 Every officer or person employed by the Trustees shall, in books to be provided by the Trustees for that purpose, enter true accounts of all sums of money by him received and paid, and of the several matters for which such sums have been received and paid, and of all acts done by him by direction of the Trustees ; and such books shall at all times be open to the inspection of any Trustee.

Payment over of moneys by Officers.

109 Every Collector or other officer appointed or employed by the Trustees to collect money shall, within Seven days after he has received any moneys on behalf of the Trustees, pay over the same to their Treasurer, and the receipt of such Treasurer for the moneys so paid shall be a sufficient discharge to such Collector or other officer ; and every such Collector or officer shall, in such time and in such manner as the Trustees direct, deliver to the Trustees true and perfect accounts in writing under his hand of all moneys received by him, and of all moneys paid by him to the said Treasurer, and also a list of the names of all persons who have neglected or refused to pay any moneys owing by them, with a statement of the moneys due from them respectively.

Officers to account.

110 Every Collector and other officer appointed or employed by the Trustees shall, from time to time, when required by the Trustees, make out and deliver to the Trustees, or to any person appointed by the Trustees for that purpose, a true and perfect account in writing under his hand of all moneys received by him on behalf of the Trustees ; and such account shall state how, and to whom, and for what purpose such moneys have been disposed of ; and together with such account such officer shall deliver the vouchers and receipts for such payments ; and every such officer shall pay to the Trustees, or to any person appointed by the Trustees to receive the same, all moneys which appear to be owing from him upon the balance of such accounts.

Longford Water.

111 If any such Collector or other officer fails to render such accounts as aforesaid, or to produce and deliver up all books, vouchers, and receipts relating to the same in his possession or power, or to pay the balance thereof when thereunto required, or if for Five days after being thereunto required he fails to deliver up to the Trustees, or to any person appointed by the Trustees to receive the same, all books, papers, and writings, property, effects, matters, and things in his possession or power relating to the execution of his office or belonging to the Trustees, then, on complaint thereof being made to a Justice, such Justice shall summon such officer to appear before Two or more Justices at a time and place to be set forth in such summons, to answer such charge; and upon the appearance of such officer, or upon proof that such summons was personally served upon him, or left at his last known place of abode, such Justices may hear and determine the matter in a summary way, and may adjust and declare the balance owing by such officer; and if it appears, either upon confession of such officer, or upon evidence, or upon inspection of the accounts, that any moneys of the Trustees are in the hands of such officer, or owing by him to the Trustees, such Justices may order such officer to pay the same; and if he fails to pay the amount, it shall be lawful for such Justice to grant a warrant to levy the same by distress, and in default of sufficient distress to commit the offender to gaol, there to remain without bail for a period not exceeding Three months, unless the same is sooner paid.

A.D. 1898.

Summary proceedings against Officers failing to account.

112 If any officer summoned as aforesaid refuses to make out such account in writing, or to produce and deliver to the Justices the several vouchers and receipts relating thereto, or to deliver up any books, papers, or writings, property, effects, matters, or things in his possession or power belonging to the Trustees, such Justices may commit such offender to gaol, there to remain until he has delivered up all the vouchers and receipts in his possession or power relating to such accounts, and all the books, papers, writings, property, effects, matters, and things in his possession or power belonging to the Trustees.

Proceedings on refusal to give up books.

113 If any Trustee, or other person acting on behalf of the Trustees, makes oath that he has good reason to believe, upon grounds to be stated in his deposition, and does believe, that it is the intention of any such officer as aforesaid to abscond, the Justice before whom the complaint is made may, instead of issuing his summons, issue his warrant, for bringing such officer before Two such Justices as aforesaid; but no person executing such warrant shall keep such officer in custody longer than Twenty-four hours without bringing him before Two or more Justices; and the Justices before whom such officer is brought may either discharge such officer if he thinks there is no sufficient ground for his detention, or order such officer to be detained in custody so as to be brought before Two or more Justices, at a time and place to be named in such Order, unless such officer gives bail to the satisfaction of such Justices for his appearance before Two or more Justices to answer the complaint of the Trustees.

If Officer about to abscond warrant may be issued.

114 No such proceeding against or dealing with any such officer as aforesaid shall deprive the Trustees of any remedy which they would otherwise have had against such officer or any surety of such officer.

Proceedings against Officers not to discharge sureties.

A.D. 1898.

Accounts.

Trustees to keep accounts of receipts and disbursements.

115 The Trustees shall cause books to be provided and kept, and true and regular accounts to be entered therein, of all sums of money received and paid under the authority of this Act, and of the several purposes for which such sums of money have been received and paid, which books shall at all reasonable times be open to the inspection of any Trustee or creditor of the Trustees, without fee or reward, and the persons aforesaid, or any of them, may take copies of or extracts from the said books without paying anything for the same; and any person having the custody of the said books who does not, on the reasonable demand of any Trustee, permit him to inspect the said books, or to take such copies or extracts as aforesaid, shall for every such offence incur a penalty not exceeding Five Pounds.

Statement and account to be annually prepared.

116 The Trustees shall, before the end of the second week in the month of January in each year, cause the accounts of the Trustees up to and including the last day of December next preceding to be balanced, and also cause full and true statements and accounts to be drawn out of the amount of all rates made and levied, and of all moneys received and expended during the preceding year, and also of all debts then owing by and to the Trustees, and such statement and account shall be signed by the Chairman and not less than Two Trustees.

Audit of accounts.

52 Vict. No. 43.

117 The accounts of the Trustees mentioned in the Two preceding Sections of this Act shall be subject and liable to all the provisions of "The Audit Act, 1888," in the same manner as the accounts of Trustees of Road Districts are now subject and liable; and the statements and accounts mentioned in the One hundred and sixteenth Section of this Act shall be forwarded to the Auditor-General during the month of February in every year; and the statement and account of all moneys received and expended, with the report of the said Auditor-General thereon, shall be published in the Gazette as soon as may be after the same have been audited; and a copy of such Gazette shall be affixed by the Trustees on or near the door of the Post Office at Longford.

Appropriation.

118 All moneys whatsoever levied, received, or recovered under the authority of this Act shall be at the sole and absolute disposal of the Trustees, to be by them applied in such manner as they see fit in carrying out and effectuating the purposes of this Act, and to no other purpose.

Moneys received to be paid into bank.

119 As soon as the moneys at any time in the hands of the Collector or the Treasurer of the Trustees shall amount to Five Pounds he shall forthwith pay the same into some public bank in this Colony to the account of the Trustees; and no part of such moneys shall be drawn out of such bank except by cheque signed by the Treasurer and One of the Trustees. The Treasurer shall cause the Trustees' Bank Pass-book to be laid upon the table at every meeting of the Trustees.

Offences.

Penalty for obstructing Trustees.

120 Every person who wilfully obstructs, hinders, or interrupts the Trustees, or any person acting under the authority of the Trustees, in doing or performing any work by this Act authorised to be done or premises, unless for the purpose of extinguishing any fire, or unless he is a person supplied with water by the Trustees from the Waterworks and the pipes belonging to him are without his default out of repair, shall, for every such offence, incur a penalty not exceeding Twenty Pounds.

Taking water without authority.

126 Every person who without due authority takes any water from any waterwork belonging to the Trustees or any pipe leading to such waterwork or other like place containing water belonging to the Trustees, other than such as may have been provided for the gratuitous use of the public, shall, for every such offence, incur a penalty not exceeding Twenty Pounds.

Attaching service pipe without authority.

127 Any person who makes any pipe to communicate with any waterwork or pipe of the Trustees, without the authority of the Trustees in that behalf, shall incur a penalty not exceeding Twenty Pounds.

Destroying valves, &c.

128 Every person who carelessly breaks, injures, or opens any lock, cock, valve, pipe, work, or engine belonging to the Trustees, or flushes or draws off water from the reservoirs or other waterworks of the Trustees, or does or omits to do any other act whereby the water is wasted, shall for every such offence incur a penalty not exceeding Five Pounds.

Fouling water by gas.

129 Whenever the water supplied by the Trustees is fouled by the gas of any persons making or supplying gas, such person shall for every such offence incur a penalty not exceeding Twenty Pounds, and a further penalty not exceeding Ten Pounds for each day during which the offence continues after the expiration of Twenty-four hours from the serving of notice of such offence.

Accessories to offences liable as principals.

130 Where the doing of any act or thing is made punishable by this Act, or by any By-law in force under the authority of this Act, with any penalty, fine, or forfeiture, the causing, procuring, permitting, or suffering such act or thing to be done shall be punishable in like manner.

Appropriation of penalties.

131 All penalties for offences against this Act shall be applied to the use of the Trustees, and shall be paid to the Treasurer of the Trustees, and shall be carried to the credit of the Water Account.

By-laws.

By-laws.

132 The Trustees shall have power from time to time to make, alter, modify, amend, or repeal By-laws for the following purposes:—

For regulating the charges, terms, and conditions upon which water shall be supplied in the cases provided for by the sections Sixty-one, Sixty-two, and Sixty-three of this Act:

For regulating the description of pipes and other apparatus by means of which water may be laid on, distributed, or supplied from the Waterworks, and for prohibiting the use of any other description of pipes or apparatus:

For defining and declaring the places in which the offences mentioned in Section One hundred and twenty-two shall be prohibited:

Longford Water.

For regulating the distance or distances from the Waterworks at which yards, pig-styes, stables, cow-houses, cesspools, closets, and such like places shall be made, placed, or erected : A.D. 1898.

For preventing injury to the Waterworks :

For regulating all or any matters and things whatsoever connected with the water to be supplied by means of the Waterworks :

And to provide that any such By-law may be enforced by cutting off the pipe, or turning off the water, or by such pecuniary penalty not exceeding in any case the sum of Ten Pounds.

133 No By-law to be made by the Trustees shall be of any force and effect until it has been certified by the Attorney or Solicitor-General not to be repugnant to this Act or to the general spirit or intendment of the Laws in force in Tasmania and published in the Gazette. By-laws to be certified and published.

Miscellaneous.

134 Whenever by this Act authority is conferred on the Trustees to enter upon any land for the purposes of this Act, or to do any act in or relating to the construction or maintenance of any work, the same authority shall equally extend to all persons acting by the direction of the Trustees, and to all necessary agents, assistants, servants, workmen, means, and appliances whatsoever. Powers conferred on Trustees to extend to Officers duly authorised.

135 Wherever the owners or occupiers of property through or by which any stream flows, the water of which has been taken, diverted, or compounded by the Trustees under the authority of this Act, have now by law the right of using this water for any purpose, and water in lieu of that which may be thereby taken away can be supplied from the Waterworks, it shall be lawful for the Trustees, instead of making pecuniary compensation to the owners or occupiers for the time being of such land, to afford a reasonable supply of water for such purpose from the Waterworks free of charge other than the Water Rates for the time being made and enforced under this Act ; and in case the Trustees and any such owner or occupier do not agree as to the quantity to be supplied, or as to the mode of supply, the same shall be determined in the manner provided by Section Forty-eight of this Act. Compensation in lieu of water taken may be by supply of water.

136 The Trustees shall only recognise those rights, if any, to the use of the water taken or diverted by the Trustees under the authority of this Act that have accrued up to the passing thereof ; but no rights to the use of the water other than those that have so accrued shall be deemed hereinafter to exist as against the Trustees. Only existing rights to water to be recognised.

137 No person shall be disqualified from acting as a Judge, Justice of the Peace, Juror, or otherwise in any proceeding under this Act, or any Act incorporated herewith, by reason only of his being a ratepayer of the Water District, or by reason of his being liable to any rate or charge for water supplied under this Act, or of his premises being supplied, or being so situated as to be capable of being supplied, with water under this Act. Interest in execution of Act not to be a disqualification.

Longford Water.

A.D. 1898.

Trustees may sue and be sued.

138 The Trustees may sue and be sued, and all proceedings before any Court, or a Judge of any Court, and all proceedings taken or adopted in pursuance of the provisions of this Act, may be taken or adopted by or against them by the name of the Trustees of the Longford Water District, without otherwise naming such Trustees, and service of any legal process on the Chairman or Secretary shall be deemed and taken as good service on the said Trustees.

Property may be laid in the Trustees.

139 The property in all land vested in, taken, or purchased by the Trustees, and in all moneys at their disposal for the purposes of this Act, and in all Waterworks, with the several appliances and appurtenances thereto belonging, and the materials of which the same consist, and all materials, tools, implements, and things furnished and provided by the Trustees for the purposes of this Act, shall, for the purposes of this Act, be vested in the Trustees; and in any proceedings, civil or criminal, relating to such land, waterworks, money, or property so vested in the Trustees for the purposes of this Act, it shall be sufficient to describe such property, waterworks, or money as "the property, waterworks, or money of the Trustees of the Longford Water District."

Offences to be dealt with summarily.

19 Vict. No. 8.

19 Vict. No. 10.

140 All offences against this Act, (except the offences defined in Section One hundred and twenty-two), or any By-law, shall be heard and determined in a summary way by any Two Justices of the Peace in the mode prescribed by The Magistrates Summary Procedure Act; and any person convicted of any offence against this Act, or any By-law, may appeal against the conviction in the mode prescribed by The Appeals Regulation Act.

Books containing records to be evidence in Courts of Justice, &c.

141 Every book in which orders and proceedings are entered under the provisions of this Act shall be received as prima facie evidence in all Courts, and before all Judges, Justices of the Peace and others, that such orders and proceedings were duly made and had; and the onus of proving that such orders and proceedings respectively were not duly made and had, shall in all cases rest upon the defendant or the party disputing the validity thereof.

Power to award costs.

142 In all proceedings whatever for the recovery of any rates or charges for the supply of water under this Act, and in all other proceedings before Justices in pursuance of this Act, it shall be lawful for the Justice or Justices in his or their discretion to award and order that the defendant shall pay such costs as to such Justice or Justices shall seem just and reasonable in that behalf; and in cases where such Justice or Justices, instead of making an Order as aforesaid, shall dismiss the information or complaint, it shall be lawful for him or them in his or their discretion to award or order to the defendant such costs as to such Justice or Justices shall seem just and reasonable, and the sum so allowed for costs shall in all cases be specified in the order or orders of dismissal as aforesaid, and the same shall be recoverable in the same manner and under the same Warrants as any penalty or sum of money adjudged to be paid in and by such Order is to be recoverable; and in cases where there is no such penalty or sum to be thereby recovered, then such costs shall be recoverable by distress and sale of goods and chattels of the party, and in default of such distress by imprisonment, with or without hard labour, for any time not exceeding One month, unless such costs shall be sooner paid.

Longford Water.

143 No action shall lie against any person for anything done in pursuance of this Act unless notice in writing of such action and of the cause thereof is given to the defendant One month at least before the commencement of the action, and such action is commenced within Three months after the cause of action has accrued; and in any such action the defendant may plead the general issue, and give this Act and the special matter in evidence; and no plaintiff shall recover in any such action if tender of sufficient amends has been made before such action brought, or if a sufficient sum of money has been paid into Court by or on behalf of the defendant after such action brought, together with the costs incurred up to that time; and if a verdict passes for the defendant, or if the plaintiff becomes non-suit or discontinues such action, or if upon demur or otherwise judgment is given against the plaintiff, the defendant shall recover his full costs as between attorney and client, and have the like remedy for recovering the same as any defendant has by Law in other cases; and though a verdict is given for the plaintiff in any such action, such plaintiff shall not have costs against the defendant unless the Judge before whom the case is tried certifies his approbation of the action and the verdict obtained thereupon.

A.D. 1898.

Persons acting under Act entitled
