ANNO VICESIMO-NONO

VICTORIÆ REGINÆ,

No. 19.

AN ACT to amend The Matrimonial Causes Act.
[29 September, 1865.]

WHEREAS it is expedient to amend The Matrimonial Causes Act: Be it therefore enacted by His Excellency the Governor of Tasmania, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and House of Assembly, in Parliament assembled, as follows:—

PREAMBLE.
24 Vict. No. 1.

1 Where a Wife deserted by her Husband has obtained, or hereafter obtains, under the provisions of Section 9 of The Matrimonial Causes Act, from a Judge of the Supreme Court, an Order protecting her earnings and property, the Husband and any creditor, or other person claiming under him, may apply to the Supreme Court or any Judge thereof for the discharge of such Order; and such Court or Judge shall have authority to make an Order discharging the same; and an Order for Discharge of an Order for Protection may be applied for to, and be granted by the Supreme Court or any Judge thereof, although the Order for Protection was not made by the Court, and an Order for Protection made at one Petty Sessions may be discharged by the Justices of any later Petty Sessions held within the same District, or by the Supreme Court, or by any Judge thereof.

Amends provisions of 24 Vict. No. 1, s. 9, as to Orders for Protection of wife deserted by her husband.

2 This Act and The Matrimonial Causes Act, except in so far as the same is altered by this Act, shall be read and construed together as one and the same Act.

Acts to be read together.

3 In referring to this Act it shall be sufficient to use the expression The Matrimonial Causes Act, No. 3.
