Amendment of Section 45 of the Principal Act.

Incorporation of Board.

2 Section Forty-two of the Principal Act is hereby repealed, and the following section substituted therefor :—

“42—(1) Such fund shall be managed and controlled, and be invested and disbursed in accordance with the provisions of this Act and the rules and regulations made thereunder, by and under the direction of a Board of five members, to be called ‘The Police Provident Fund Board,’ and hereinafter referred to as ‘the Board.’

“(2) The Board shall be constituted as follows :—

I. The Minister, the Commissioner, the Government Statistician, and the Superintendent of Police for the Southern District, shall be ex officio members of the Board :

II. The other member of the Board shall be a member of the police force, stationed, at the time of his election as hereinafter mentioned, at some place within a radius of ten miles of the city of Hobart, and shall be elected by the members of the police force in the month of January in each year by ballot in the manner prescribed, and, in the case of an equality of votes, the election shall be determined by lot.

“(3) If any question shall arise as to the validity of any election under this section, or the voting thereat, such question shall be determined by the returning officer who conducts the election, in such manner as he shall think fit, and his decision shall be final.

“(4) Subject as hereinafter mentioned, every elected member of the Board shall remain in office until the election of his successor.

“(5) If any elected member of the Board dies, or resigns his office as such member, or ceases to be a member of the police force, his seat shall become vacant, and another member of the police force, stationed as aforesaid, shall be elected by ballot in the prescribed manner, and he shall hold office for the residue of the period for which his predecessor was elected.

“(6) Whenever there is a failure to elect a member of the Board, the Governor may appoint a member of the police force, stationed as aforesaid, to the vacant office.

“(7) Any three members of the Board shall form a quorum for the transaction of business.”

3 Section Forty-five of the Principal Act is hereby amended by inserting after Paragraph IV. thereof the following paragraphs IVA. and IVB. :—

“IVA. For regulating the manner and conduct of elections to be held under this Part, and for providing for the appointment of returning officers and other persons to conduct such elections :

“IVB. For regulating the procedure of the Board.”

4 The Police Provident Fund Board shall, under that name, be a body corporate, with perpetual succession and a common seal, and may hold land, and may sue and be sued in its corporate name.

Police Regulation

5—(1) All property forming or representing part of the Police Provident Fund, and which shall at the commencement of this Act be vested in, or held by, the Board as constituted at the time of such commencement, or by any persons in trust for, or on behalf of, or as members of, such Board, shall, from and after such commencement, be vested in the said body corporate for all the estate and interest therein of such Board, persons, or members (as the case may be), and shall continue to form or represent part of the said Fund; and, when any such property is held under the provisions of the Real Property Act, the said body corporate shall be deemed to be the registered proprietor thereof.

(2) The Recorder of Titles, upon the application in writing and under seal of the said body corporate, and upon proof to his satisfaction that any such property as last aforesaid was vested in or held by or on behalf of the Board at the time of the commencement of this Act, shall issue to the applicant such instruments of title in respect thereof as are by the said Act provided for.
