AN ACT to amend "The Public Service Act, 1905." A.D. 1910.
[13 January, 1911.]

BE it enacted by His Excellency the Governor of Tasmania, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and House of Assembly, in Parliament assembled, as follows :—

1 This Act may be cited for all purposes as "The Public Service Amendment Act, 1910," and shall be incorporated with and construed as one with "The Public Service Act, 1905." Short title and incorporation with 5 Ed. VII. No. 9.

2 Section Sixty-four of the Principal Act is hereby repealed, and the following section is hereby substituted therefor :—
 "4—(1.) Every day declared by 'The Bank Holidays Act, 1903,' to be a bank holiday for the purposes of that Act shall be observed as a Public Service holiday throughout the Public Service. Repeal and re-enactment of Section 64 of Principal Act. Holidays. 3 Ed. VII. No. 4.

Public Service Amendment.

A.D. 1910.

“(2.) Whenever the Governor, pursuant to ‘The Bank Holidays Act, 1903.’ appoints a special day or part thereof to be observed as a bank holiday or half-holiday, either throughout Tasmania or in any part thereof, or in any city, town, or district therein, the day or part thereof so appointed shall be kept as a holiday or half-holiday in all offices of the State Government situate within the locality mentioned in the notice.

“(3.) The Governor may also, in addition to the foregoing, at any time appoint any specified day or specified part of a day to be kept as a holiday or half-holiday in the public offices of the State, or in any part thereof.

“(4.) The Minister of a department or the permanent head thereof may require such department or any part thereof to be kept open in the public interest for the whole or any portion of a holiday, and may require the attendance and services of any officer of such department during any such holiday ; but in that case every such officer shall be granted in lieu thereof a holiday upon such other occasion as shall not interfere with public business.”
