Railway Management Amendment.

A.D. 1921.

Temporary reappointment of Commissioner.

3—(1) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in the Act of 1910, the person who, immediately prior to the First day of April, One thousand nine hundred and twenty-one, held the office of Commissioner for Railways, shall be deemed to have been lawfully re-appointed to that office on the lastmentioned date for a term extending from such date to the Thirtieth day of September, One thousand nine hundred and twenty-one, at the salary of One thousand five hundred Pounds a year.

(2) The said salary is hereby charged on the Consolidated Revenue, and such revenue to the extent required for the payment of the salary for the aforesaid term is hereby appropriated.

Repeal and reenactment of Section 12 of the Act of 1910.

Salary of Commissioner.

4 Section Twelve of the Act of 1910 is hereby repealed, and the following section substituted therefor :—

“12 The Commissioner shall receive the salary of One thousand five hundred Pounds a year.

The said salary is hereby charged on the Consolidated Revenue, and such revenue to the extent required for the payment of the salary is hereby permanently appropriated.”
