or to have any place of business in Tasmania under the firm-name, give notice to the Registrar accordingly, and the Registrar shall thereupon remove the firm-name from the register.

(2) Where the Registrar has reason to believe that a firm or any person carrying on business under a firm-name, registered under this Act, has ceased to carry on business or has no place of business in Tasmania under the firm-name, he may send to the firm or person by registered post a letter inquiring whether the firm or person is carrying on business or has any place of business in Tasmania under the firm-name.

(3) If the Registrar receives an answer from the firm or person to the effect that it or he is not carrying on business or has no place of business in Tasmania under the firm-name, he may thereupon strike the firm-name off the register, and shall publish a notice thereof in the Gazette.

(4) If the Registrar does not, within one month after sending the letter, receive any answer thereto, he may publish in the Gazette, and send to the firm or person by post, a notice that, at the expiration of one month from the date of publication of the notice, the firm-name mentioned therein will, unless cause is shown to the contrary, be struck off the register.

(5) At the expiration of the time mentioned in the notice, the Registrar, unless cause to the contrary is previously shown by the firm or person, may strike the firm-name off the register, and shall publish a notice thereof in the Gazette."
