WAGES BOARDS.

No. 16 of 1966.

AN ACT to amend the Wages Boards Act 1920.

[20 July 1966.]

BE it enacted by His Excellency the Governor of Tasmania, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and House of Assembly, in Parliament assembled, as follows:—

Short title and citation. 1—(1) This Act may be cited as the Wages Boards Act 1966.

(2) The Wages Boards Act 1920, as subsequently amended, is in this Act referred to as the Principal Act.

Interpretation. 2 Section six of the Principal Act is amended by inserting therein, after the definition of " local public body ", the following definition:—

" ' representative member ', used in relation to a board, means a person who is appointed, pursuant to section thirteen, as a member of the board as a representative of employers or of employees;".

Powers and functions of boards. 3 Section twenty-three of the Principal Act is amended—

(a) by inserting in paragraph (c) of subsection (1) thereof, before the word " Sundays ", the words " on Saturdays or "; and

(b) by omitting from paragraph (m) of that subsection the word " section " and substituting therefor the word " subsection ".

4 After section twenty-five of the Principal Act the following section is inserted in Division VII of Part III:—

Amendment of determination without a meeting of the board. " 25A—(1) A determination of a board may, in accordance with this section, be amended without a meeting of the board having been convened for that purpose if—

(a) a written application signed by all the representative members of the board and specifying the proposed amendment is delivered to the chairman of the board; and

(b) the chairman approves the application and endorses thereon a signed notification of his approval.

"(2) If on receipt of an application under subsection (1) of this section the chairman is of the opinion that the amendment specified in the application is of such a nature or of such importance that it ought to be discussed at a meeting of the board he may refuse to approve the application and may recommend to the Minister that a meeting of the board be convened for the purpose of considering the proposed amendment.

"(3) Where the chairman of a board approves an application under this section—

(a) the chairman shall deliver the application, with a signed notification of his approval endorsed thereon, to the secretary of the board who shall cause a record of the application to be entered in the book kept by him for the purposes of section twenty-two B, and thereupon the application shall, for all the purposes of this Act, be treated as a decision of the board; and

(b) the chairman may proceed to make a determination amending the existing determination of the board in accordance with the amendment specified in the application.

"(4) A determination made pursuant to this section shall, for all the purposes of this Act, be treated as a determination of the board.

"(5) The chairman of a board may, in relation to the making of a determination pursuant to this section, exercise all such powers and determine all such matters as could, under this Act, have been exercised and determined by the board if the determination had been made by the board.

"(6) The provisions of section twenty-nine apply to and in relation to a determination made pursuant to this section and, in their application to such a determination, a reference in those provisions to a determination (however expressed) shall be construed as including a reference to a determination made pursuant to this section.".
