

Construction Industry Long Service Leave (Amendment) Bill

EXPLANATORY NOTES

Clause 1 states the specific purpose of the Bill.

Clause 2 provides for the Act to come into operation on receiving Royal Assent.

Clause 3 notes that the Construction Industry Long Service Leave Act 1983 is the Principal Act.

Clause 4 this clause clarifies the definition of “service in the construction industry” by including the requirement that the service involves actual construction work. The current definition of service in the construction industry only requires a person to be employed in the construction industry.

Clause 5 inserts a new section which indemnifies members and staff of the Construction Industry Long Service Leave Board from personal liability for decisions made in good faith.

Clause 6 this clause makes a number of minor statute law revision amendments.
