

WESTERN AUSTRALIA.

ANNO QUINTO

EDWARDI SEPTIMI REGIS,

XXV.

No. 25 of 1905.

AN ACT to further amend the Metropolitan Waterworks Act, 1896.

[Assented to 23rd December, 1905.]

BE it enacted by the King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Legislative Assembly of Western Australia, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

1. This Act may be cited as the Metropolitan Waterworks Amendment Act, 1905 (No. 2), and shall be read as one with the Metropolitan Waterworks Act, 1896, hereinafter referred to as the principal Act. Short title.

2. The Metropolitan Waterworks Board, or the Minister for Works, while lawfully exercising the functions of the said Board, may issue debentures to the extent of eight hundred and twenty thousand pounds instead of four hundred and twenty thousand pounds, as provided by section thirteen of the principal Act as amended by the Metropolitan Waterworks Amendment Act, 1902, and the words "eight hundred and twenty thousand pounds" are inserted in section thirteen of the principal Act in place of the words "four hundred and twenty thousand pounds." Borrowing from the Metropolitan Waterworks Board increased to £820,000.
